Abstracts

Witnessing a fairly steady growth in recent years, the Swedish tobacco industry is likely to undergo a slowdown in the coming five years. This is particularly so because of the strict legislation put in place by the Swedish government to control the use of tobacco.

Cigarettes led the Swedish tobacco industry in 2010, with the segment accounting for nearly 65% of the market share, followed by a 28% share of the market being taken up by chewing tobacco.

Aruvians Rsearch analyzes the Swedish tobacco industry in its research offering Analyzing the Tobacco Industry in Sweden. The report is an in-depth profile of the tobacco industry in Sweden as well as the global tobacco industry, along with a complete analysis of the major players in the industry.

For the global tobacco industry we analyze the industry through an industry definition, industry overview wherein we look at the market statistics, an industry value analysis, industry segmentation, regional share of the industry, industry distribution, along with an analysis of the competition in the industry and company market share. Future of the global tobacco industry is also analyzed.

For the Swedish tobacco industry, we analyze the tobacco market through an industry overview, industry value analysis, industry segmentation, regional share analysis, industry distribution, market competition, major players in the market and their market share, as well as an analysis of the future of the tobacco market in Sweden.

With tobacco being one of the most commonly used addictive substances in the world, the industry will continue to grow in the coming years, though the growth is going to be faced with many challenges as countries put in place stringent laws to combat the health effects of consuming tobacco. Aruvians Rsearch's analysis of the Swedish tobacco industry is a comprehensive analysis of the industry.

Major players in the Swedish tobacco industry are analyzed through a company overview, business segment analysis, financial analysis, and a SWOT analysis.
