Abstracts

An increasing number of Spanish families are choosing to get a cat as a pet for their home, with this helping to fuel demand for cat food. Cat ownership among elderly people is also increasing as they are easier to look after at home than a dog. The pandemic highlighted the benefits of keeping a pet for companionship, with the more independent nature of cats making them ideal pets both for the elderly but also for those who lead busier lives outside the home. Cat food continues to see strong gro...
