Abstracts

Other dairy products suffered severely from the effects of the economic downturn in 2010 as Costa Ricans generally consider this type of product as non-essential. A reduction was recorded in the purchase frequency of other dairy products during 2009/10, which was reflected in lower volume and value sales. However, as the Costa Rican economy recovers, consumers seem to be more confident and willing to buy non-essential products. Other dairy products showed signs of a slow recovery in 2010 and...
