Abstracts

COVID-19 heavily impacted the use of closed loop pre-paid cards during 2020 due a dramatic decline in the use of public transport in urban areas, particularly during the second and third quarters of the year. Lockdown measures saw public transport in many parts of the country running a drastically reduced level of service between March and May. Moreover, many local people were unwilling to take buses and trains due to the risk of contagion. However, both the value and the volume of closed loop p...
