Abstracts

LiPF6 prices continued to decrease slightly in Aug. 2024 under little cost support and slack demand. LiPF6 prices are expected to continue to fall in the short run.
In late Aug. 2024, Zhejiang Sanmei released an announcement on an investment project constructed by its holding subsidiary.
On 20 Aug., 2024, Zhejiang Zhongxin Fluoride released its annual report for H1 2024; the company's net profits plummeted by 427.59% YoY.
In mid-Aug. 2024, the monitoring report of environmental protection acceptance of Fujian Haidefu's 15,000 t/a high-performance fluorine material project (phase I) was publicised.
In early Aug. 2024, the Bureau of Ecology and Environment of Shaoxing City published the environmental impact assessment report of Zhejiang Fluorine's fluoropolymer and fluororubber projects.
The information of the fluorine-enriched inorganic salt project of Kexin Chemical was publicised in late July 2024.
In Aug. 2024, fluorite prices declined with tight supply supporting the prices. Fluorite prices are expected to continue to slip in the short term.
In Aug. 2024, AHF prices scarcely changed under weak downstream demand and support from raw material costs. AHF prices are expected to fluctuate in the near future.
R22 prices edged down in Aug. 2024. R22 prices are expected to fluctuate in the short term under stable supply and sluggish downstream demand.
In Aug. 2024, AlF3 prices dropped and then became stable. AlF3 prices are expected to slip slightly in the short run as raw material prices edge down and demand remain weak.
