Abstracts

Having held back on major expansion plans during the review period, Spinneys should be in a good position to progress at a faster rate over the forecast period, helped by more favourable economic conditions in the United Arab Emirates. Towards the end of the review period however, there were rumours that the company may be taken public or sold to another owner, which could result in a further stagnation of outlets in the near future. Still, Spinneys will be looking to expand its outlet volume...
