Abstracts

According to our (Global Info Research) latest study, the global Revenue Based Financing market size was valued at USD million in 2023 and is forecast to a readjusted size of USD million by 2030 with a CAGR of % during review period.

Revenue-based financing, also defined as royalty-based financing, is a way of raising business capital from creditors, who earn a portion of a company's ongoing gross profits in return for money they have invested. A company that raises funds via revenue-based financing would be needed to make periodic payments to pay off the investor's principal. In the case of revenue-based financing activity, creditors earn a standard share of business profits until a predefined sum has been compensated back.
