This Excel-base Data-rich Deliverable (DRD) that is part of the Construction subscription includes market intelligence on IT expenditures for the construction vertical. Compass Intelligence defines construction as establishments primarily engaged in construction work or services. Compass Intelligence defines IT as investments on services, equipment, applications and personnel to develop, manage and support a firm's IT infrastructure and communications. The Expert Guide for this deliverable is Stephanie Atkinson. Forecasts are from 2005 through 2010 and include annual growth rates, as well as percentage of total market.

Sources: Compass Intelligence's segment and market forecasts, which include business expenditures, market demographics, and usage and adoption statistics are built using multiple sources, including proprietary Compass Intelligence research. These sources include, but are not limited to, secondary research, government data and statistics (e.g. Department of Commerce, Federal Communication Commission, Bureau of Labor Statistics and US Census Bureau), primary research, vendor-based research and in-depth interviews with key decision-makers, where relevant. Compass Intelligence selects data sources to provide greatest degree of perspective on each market or segment, in addition to the highest level of data accuracy, stability, and consistency over time.
