Plastic Film, Sheet & Bag Manufacturing in the US

Package deal

The industry depends on sales from retailers, wholesalers and distributors for much of its revenue. As the economy recovers, rising consumer spending will ramp up activity in these markets, propelling demand for plastic bags and other industry products. Despite rising regulations against plastic bag use, manufacturers will develop new products to use as substitutes for others, driving industry growth.

This industry is composed of establishments that convert plastic resins into plastic bags. Industry operators form, coat or laminate plastic film and sheets into single-wall or multiwall plastic bags.

This report covers the scope, size, disposition and growth of the industry including the key sensitivities and success factors. Also included are five year industry forecasts, growth rates and an analysis of the industry key players and their market shares.
