Abstracts

360iResearch predicts the Americas survey management market to grow from USD 331.29 million in 2016 to USD 1,003.47 million by 2023, at a Compound Annual Growth Rate (CAGR) of 17.15%. The year 2016 has been considered as the base year, while the forecast period is up-to 2023.

The major forces driving the growth of the survey management market include the need to efficiently analyze the hidden patterns in surveys and high penetration of mobile and smart devices for interactive service. However certain factors such as the difficulty in projecting emotions may hinder the market growth. In the middle of difficulty lies opportunity such as the tool to study brand, advertising, media and retail trackers. The possible challenges for the market growth is lack of good survey design practices. But key players in the market are overcoming the challenges with continual improvement and innovation.

Based on industry, the Americas survey management market is studied across aerospace & defense, banking, financial services & insurance, consumer goods & retail, education, energy & utilities, government, healthcare & life sciences, information technology, manufacturing, media & entertainment, telecommunication, automotive & transportation & logistics, and travel & hospitality.
