Abstracts

Third-party logistics (3PL) in a company's supply chain management is a third-party business used by manufacturers to provide fulfillment services and distribute the company's products. These services consist of warehousing, integrated operations, and transportation services, which can be scaled according to customer needs and market conditions. Logistics service providers are responsible for the delivery of goods from manufacturers to consumers. The 3PL market has witnessed significant growth over the years, owing to increase in trading activities due to globalization and development of the e-commerce industry.

This report analyses the Canada 3PL market on the basis of type, mode of transportation, and region. This report further outlines current trends, key driving factors, and key area of investment. In addition, the report features the strategies adopted by key market players to maintain their foothold in the market. Furthermore, it highlights the competitive landscape of the key market players to increase their market share and sustain intense competition in the industry.

A.P. Moller-Maersk, Bollore Logistics, C.H. Robinson Worldwide, Inc., FedEx Corporation, Kintetsu World Express, Inc., Nippon Express, Penske Logistics, Inc., Purolator Inc., SCI Group, and United Parcel Service are some of the key players operating in the Canada 3PL market.
