Abstracts

Coffee maker is a machine used to brew coffee. The machine can be semi-automated or fully automated, which helps in quick brewing of coffee and maintaining the quality and taste of the end product. Coffee machine plays a crucial role in the coffee industry. The adoption trends of different types of coffee machines differ according to the location of the cafe. For instance, in Tier 1 cities, famous brands of coffee shops prefer high priced premium coffee machine brands.

Rise in number of cafes and restaurants and increase in consumption of coffee in emerging nations are the key factors that drive the growth of the coffee maker market. Furthermore, the key players in the market are focusing toward new developments & launches in the machine, which is expected to boost the growth of the market. Integration of leading technological features in the machine also fuels the growth of the market. The global coffee maker market was valued at $3.8 billion in 2019, and is anticipated to reach $5.1 billion by 2027, with a CAGR of 6.30% during the forecast period.

However, high capacity capital & maintenance cost and availability of other substitutes with fast food like cold drinks and shakes restrain the market growth. Whereas, increase in millennial population and rise in adoption of western consumption habits are anticipated to provide lucrative opportunities for the key players operating in the global coffee maker market. In addition, growth in innovative technological advancement in coffee maker and increase in investments by small- & mid-sized coffee maker manufacturing companies provide growth opportunities for the market.
