Abstracts

The Hair Color Spray Market size was valued at $291.90 million in 2018 and is expected to reach $481.60 million by 2026, registering a CAGR of 6.6% from 2019 to 2026.

The global Hair color spray market is segmented on the basis of nature, distribution channel and region. Based on nature, the market is segmented into natural, organic, and synthetic. Based on distribution channel, the market is classified into online and offline.

Over the past couple of years there has been rise in demand for different types of hair styling products. With the surge in demand for the product, some of the manufacturers including hair color spray companies have been strategizing on improvising its product in terms of its features and specifications. For instance, in 2018, Strobe Contour Kit brand have come up with a new line of hair color spray that features a color format combination of dark, medium and light shades at the same time. Such hair color variants have been trending among the target customer specifically the millennials. Hence, innovation facilitated by manufacturers have been driving the demand for hair color spray products.

In the recent years, consumers have been very conscious about their looks and appearance, which has eventually triggered the demand for different types of cosmetic products specifically hair styling products. Increase in celebrity influence, persistent self-consciousness about facial appearance, and societal influence to come up with blonde hair or specific colored hair, are some the key factors that boost the demand for hair styling products that even includes hair color sprays. Furthermore, rise in need to maintain hair style among beauty-conscious customers for longer period serves as a key factor for the adoption and usage of hair color spray products.

Male population are the new end users in the global hair color spray market. Traditionally men were never associated with hair styling products, however, in the recent past, the global hair market has witnessed rise in number of male customers. The rise in concern among men to maintain proper hairstyle for longer duration has led to demand for such hair color spray products. Thus, rise in number of men population is an influential factor in the global hair color spray market forecast.

Key players profiled in the report include Procter & Gamble, Leonor Greyl USA, Aveda Corporation, L'Oréal Inc., Unilever Inc., Henkel Corporation, Unilever group, Coty Inc., Avalon Natural Products, Inc., Cobiosa Industrias Asociadas S.L., and others.
