Abstracts

The global matcha tea market was valued at $2,454.3 million in 2019, and is projected to reach $4,480.5 million by 2027, registering a CAGR of 7.1%.

Matcha tea is a type of green tea that is made by picking young tea leaves and subsequently grinding these tea leaves into a bright green powder. It is in powdered and liquid form in the market. It has a mellow and smooth flavor. Moreover, these matcha tea are easily available in the market through various distribution channels including online stores, supermarkets/hypermarket, specialty, and others. The continuous growth of online stores is expected to drive growth of the matcha tea market, in terms of value sales, during the forecast period.

Rise in number of health-conscious consumers across the globe boosts the market growth. Moreover, new innovations in the product done by the manufacturers fuels growth of the matcha tea market. However, high cost of matcha tea is expected to hamper growth of the market. On the contrary, rise in consumer awareness about organic products and rapid penetration of online retail platform are anticipated to offer immense opportunities for the market growth during the forecast period.
