Used cars are sold through traditional walk-in used cars stores, online platforms, and independent vehicle dealers. Furthermore, franchises, including social media and online used-car companies, help people buy and sell used cars..

At present, Asia-Pacific dominates the market, followed by LAMEA, North America, and Europe. China dominated the global market in 2019, whereas South Korea is expected to grow at a significant rate in Asia-Pacific during the forecast period.
