Abstracts

This report studies the Professional Liability Insurance market. Professional liability insurance (PLI), also called professional indemnity insurance (PII) or errors & omissions (E&O), is a form of liability insurance which helps protect professional advice- and service-providing individuals and companies from bearing the full cost of defending against a negligence claim made by a client, and damages awarded in such a civil lawsuit.

The coverage focuses on alleged failure to perform on the part of, financial loss caused by, and error or omission in the service or product sold by the policyholder. These are causes for legal action that would not be covered by a more general liability insurance policy which addresses more direct forms of harm. Professional liability insurance may take on different forms and names depending on the profession, especially medical and legal, and is sometimes required under contract by other businesses that are the beneficiaries of the advice or service.

According to APO Research, The global Professional Liability Insurance market is projected to grow from US$ million in 2024 to US$ million by 2030, at a Compound Annual Growth Rate (CAGR) of % during the forecast period.

Global Professional Liability Insurance key players include Chubb, AIG, AXA, Hiscox, Allianz, etc. Global top five manufacturers hold a share over 25%.

North America is the largest market, with a share about 60%, followed by Europe and Asia-Pacific, both have a share about 35 percent.

In terms of product, Medical Liability is the largest segment, with a share about 30%. And in terms of application, the largest application is Up to $1 Million, followed by $1 Million to $5 Million.
