Abstracts

Natural fibers that are mainly from plants, animals and regenerated sources are degradable and environmentally friendly as they absorb carbon dioxide and release oxygen, they are cost effective when compare to the synthetic fibers. These materials mainly from plant are used initially for domestics' purposes. The applications of natural fibers are growing in many sectors such as automobiles, furniture, packing and construction. This is mainly due to their advantages compared to synthetic fibers, i.e. low cost, low weight, less damage to processing equipment, improved surface finish of moulded parts composite, good relative mechanical properties, abundant and renewable resources. Natural fibers are used in various applications such as building materials, particle boards, insulation boards, human food and animal feed, cosmetics, medicine and for other biopolymers and fine chemicals.

The common natural fibers used for Natural Fiber Reinforced Polymer Composites (NFRPC) are, cotton, sisal, coir, jute, hemp, flax, banana, bamboo etc. Natural fibers reinforced composites are emerging very rapidly as the potential substitute to the metal or ceramic based materials in applications that also include automotive, aerospace, marine, sporting goods and electronic industries.
