Abstracts

The global recliner sofa market is anticipated to reach revenues of more than $33 billion by 2024, growing at a CAGR of over 6% during 2018-2024.

The rapid change of lifestyle, improvement in living conditions, high-spending sentiments, awareness of the latest technology, reduced insecurity, and greater confidence will fuel the growth of the global market. The growth of the travel and tourism industry and other related sectors such as hospitality, food and beverages, retail, real estate, and logistics industries will create new investment avenues in the market. The global recliner sofa market is driven by the surge in the middle-class median income, their expenditure trend, home furnishing needs, and the demand for premium furniture. The boom of commercial office space and new corporate offices in developed and emerging economies will fuel the growth of the market. The market research report provides in-depth market analysis and segmental analysis of the global recliner sofa market by type, design, material, control, distribution, end-user, and geography.

The report considers the present scenario of the global recliner sofa market and its market dynamics for the period 2019?2024. It covers a detailed overview of various market growth enablers, restraints, and trends. The study covers both the demand and supply sides of the market. It also profiles and analyzes the leading companies and various other prominent companies operating in the market.

Recliner Sofa Market - Dynamics

The growing income among the population in developing economies is expected to generate potential demand for premium products. The rapid economic growth in developing countries such as China, India, the UAE, and Brazil has resulted in high disposable income among the middle-income population. Large retailers and multinational corporations from developednations mainly focus on high-income consumers in the developing countries. The demand for fully furnished apartments is rising globally. Although furnished apartments were majorly targeted at business professionals and people in transition, the landscape is now changing. Millennials and baby boomers are mostly renting apartments as they are changing their lifestyles. Most of the baby boomers and millennials are shedding and not accumulating possessions and responsibilities to embrace a "hands-free" lifestyle of mobility and adventure. The recliner sofas are high-involvement products; the market vendors need to connect with their audience on a personal level to position their products and assure the potential customers of their relevance. This makes promotional activities a critical factor for the growth of this market. To connect with their audience, prominent vendors have content published on social media sites, magazines, and websites. The information related to recliner sofas is available in the form of pictures and videos to assist their buyers.

Recliner Sofa Market – Segmentation
