Abstracts

Lottery, Casino Gaming, Horseracing, Slots at Racetracks, Video Lottery, and Charitable gaming all make up Canada's gaming industry. Operated in a highly regulated environment by First Nations, Crown agencies and private sector partners all offering entertaining games in world-class facilities. The casinos and gaming industry in Canada has experienced steady and moderate growth in the past couple of years in the post-recession period.

However, the last couple of years has seen the industry face stagnation like never before. Facing stagnation, the Canadian casinos and gambling industry is expected to remain the same in the coming years, with no major movement expected in the market. With a majority of people moving away from traditional gaming towards online gambling, the industry focused on land-based casinos has been facing a significant loss.
