Abstracts

The casinos and gambling industry has been undergoing a period of stagnation in France. The market is unlikely to witness much movement in the coming years, though the online gambling industry is likely to continue to witness growth. In particular, traditional gambling methods have been greatly affected by the growth of online gaming channels as people are opting to gamble from their mobile devices.

The country's gambling industry is dominated by a number of small players who have a strong hold on the industry, making it difficult for new players to enter the market. It is expected that the French casinos and gambling market will witness a value of just over $10 billion by the end of 2022.

France is famous for its Poker rooms and the tournaments held in France are something that all Poker enthusiasts look forward to. The leading Parisian Poker salon Aviation Club de France conducts the World Poker Tour tournament and each year the number of player doubles the past records.

Lyon Vert Casino is France's biggest casino and has about 400 slot machines. It also offers Stud Poker tables, Roulette wheels and Blackjack. In France, all the lotteries and betting activities are conducted by the La Francaise des Jeux. This is the French national lottery which is state controlled. The lottery has a wide variety of games and lotteries with new ones being introduced from time to time.
