Abstracts

The tobacco industry in France has been witnessing a slow growth rate in the last five years, with the market expected to decelerate further in the coming few years. The leading segment of the French tobacco industry remained cigarettes, followed closely by loose tobacco and cigars. The market is likely to witness a slowdown due to the stringent regulations put in place by the French government for regulating the impact of smoking.

Aruvians Rsearch analyzes the French tobacco industry in its research offering Analyzing the Tobacco Industry in France. The report is an in-depth profile of the tobacco industry in France as well as the global tobacco industry, along with a complete analysis of the major players in the industry.

For the global tobacco industry we analyze the industry through an industry definition, industry overview wherein we look at the market statistics, an industry value analysis, industry segmentation, regional share of the industry, industry distribution, along with an analysis of the competition in the industry and company market share. Future of the global tobacco industry is also analyzed.

For the French tobacco industry, we analyze the tobacco market through an industry overview, industry value analysis, industry segmentation, regional share analysis, industry distribution, market competition, major players in the market and their market share, as well as an analysis of the future of the tobacco market in France.

With tobacco being one of the most commonly used addictive substances in the world, the industry will continue to grow in the coming years, though the growth is going to be faced with many challenges as countries put in place stringent laws to combat the health effects of consuming tobacco.
