Abstracts

Witnessing strong growth in recent years, the Mexican tobacco industry is expected to witness a slowdown in the coming five years. The Mexican tobacco industry is led by the sales of cigarettes, followed by loose tobacco. Cigars and chewing tobacco do not have much of a market share in the industry. With the Mexican market expected to slowdown in the next five years, players are gearing up to boost sales with new marketing strategies to combat the strict regulations governing the market.

Aruvians Rsearch analyzes the Mexican tobacco industry in its research offering Analyzing the Tobacco Industry in Mexico. The report is an in-depth profile of the tobacco industry in Mexico as well as the global tobacco industry, along with a complete analysis of the major players in the industry.

For the global tobacco industry we analyze the industry through an industry definition, industry overview wherein we look at the market statistics, an industry value analysis, industry segmentation, regional share of the industry, industry distribution, along with an analysis of the competition in the industry and company market share. Future of the global tobacco industry is also analyzed.

For the Mexican tobacco industry, we analyze the tobacco market through an industry overview, industry value analysis, industry segmentation, regional share analysis, industry distribution, market competition, major players in the market and their market share, as well as an analysis of the future of the tobacco market in Mexico.

With tobacco being one of the most commonly used addictive substances in the world, the industry will continue to grow in the coming years, though the growth is going to be faced with many challenges as countries put in place stringent laws to combat the health effects of consuming tobacco.
