Abstracts

Executive Summary

The Global Contract Catering Market was valued at USD 250.32 Billion in the year 2020. Increased consumer spending in line with overall economic growth has also been instrumental in backing the global contract catering market. Large consumer base in emerging nations such as China and India, make them a lucrative market for catering solutions. Moreover, factors such as rapidly increasing urbanization, growing middle class population as well as decreasing unemployment rates are likely to drive the market in the forecast period.

Business & Industry segment is expected to be growing tremendously in the Global Contract Catering Market because the fast growing economies such as India and China will show vigorous growth in the consumer goods sector and retail sector as well.

Asia Pacific region is anticipated to grow enormously on account of growing consumer spending in addition to rapid urbanization in emerging nations of Asia Pacific region, backing the growth in the market. Countries such as India, China and Japan, etc., present a lucrative market for contract catering market.

Further, the outsourced segment in Contract Catering from Supermarkets is dominating globally. The biggest advantage of outsourced catering is that it allows the Company to focus on their core business while entrusting the nutritional requirements of staff to a specialist. Moreover, various caterers are focused on providing premium table services, exotic ingredients, live food counters and aesthetic delicacies in a profound manner, thereby transforming the global contract catering market.
