About Bio-Reference Laboratories Inc.

Bio-Reference Laboratories, Inc. offers laboratory testing services utilized by healthcare providers in the detection, diagnosis, evaluation, monitoring, and treatment of diseases. The company processes approximately 4.6 million requisitions each year. It has a network of approximately 50 patient service centers for collection of patient specimens.

Services

The clinical laboratory testing business includes routine testing and esoteric testing.

Routine Testing

Routine tests measure various health parameters, such as the functions of the heart, kidney, liver, thyroid, and other organs. The tests include blood cell counts, cholesterol levels, HIV related tests, pap smears, pregnancy, substance abuse, and urinalysis. The company performs these tests at its major processing facility in Elmwood Park, New Jersey.

Esoteric Tests

The company performs esoteric tests in medical fields, including endocrinology, genetics; immunology, microbiology, oncology, serology, and toxicology. It performs cancer cytogenetic testing at its leased facilities in Elmwood Park, NJ and Milford, Massachusetts and genetic testing at its GeneDx leased facility in Gaithersburg, Maryland.

Medical Information

The company's PSIMedica business unit is based on a clinical knowledge management system that uses data derived from various disparate sources to provide both administrative and clinical analysis of a population. The source data consists of enrollment data, claims data, pharmacy data, and laboratory results data. The system cleanses and configures the data for meaningful analysis.

The company markets value added clinical laboratory services to purchasers of clinical laboratory solutions, as well as markets its PSIMedica programs to businesses, such as health plans, integrated delivery networks, disease management companies, insurers, clinical trial companies, and other healthcare providers.

Other Products

CareEvolve, the company's wholly owned subsidiary, is a physician based connectivity portal. This portal provides a system for ordering laboratory services and delivering laboratory results. The system is designed to provide a desktop solution for physicians to manage their day-to-day practice and personal needs, as well as to handle their clinical laboratory ordering and reporting.

Customers

The company's clients include doctors, employers, clinics, and governmental units.

Competition

The company's major competitors in the New York metropolitan area are Quest Diagnostics and Laboratory Corporation of America.

Significant Events

In November 2010, Bio-Reference Laboratories Inc. announced that the company and Massachusetts General Hospital have entered into a definitive agreement to collaborate in the development of clinical diagnostic tests that would expand the use of personalized medicine for the identification and treatment of solid tumors.

History

Bio-Reference Laboratories, Inc. was founded in 1981.
