About Enzon Pharmaceuticals Inc.

Enzon Pharmaceuticals, Inc., a biopharmaceutical company, focuses on the discovery and development of important medicines for patients with cancer.

Technologies and Products

The company's drug development program utilizes various technologies, including its customized linker technology and the locked nucleic acid (LNA) technology. The company has three compounds in human clinical development: PEG-SN38, the HIF-1 alpha antagonist, and the Survivin antagonist. It has a license and collaboration agreement with Santaris for approximately eight mRNA antagonists which it intends to develop. The company holds rights worldwide, other than Europe, to develop and commercialize mRNA antagonists based on LNA technology directed against the HIF-1 alpha and Survivin mRNA targets.

PEG-SN38

The company's PEG-SN38 compound utilizes its PEGylation technology together with SN38, which is the active metabolite of the cancer drug, irinotecan. PEG-SN38 is designed to allow for intravenous delivery, increased solubility, higher exposure of the cancer cells to SN38, and longer apparent half-life. The company has completed Phase I trials and is enrolling patients in two Phase II clinical trials with PEG-SN38 in patients with metastatic colorectal and breast cancer, as well as a Phase I trial for pediatric patients with cancer. The company has licensed various RNA antagonists directed against oncology targets.

LNA Technology-Based Programs

HIF-1 Alpha Antagonist: The company's first antagonist to enter the clinic is the hypoxia-inducible factor 1 alpha (HIF-1 alpha) target. HIF-1 alpha is a validated target in various cancer types, including solid tumors. The company is conducting two Phase I studies with HIF-1 alpha in patients with solid tumors and lymphoma to evaluate different dosing schedules.

Survivin Antagonist: The company's second antagonist is Survivin. Survivin is heavily over-expressed in various cancers and in newly formed endothelial cells engaged in angiogenesis. The company is enrolling patients in a Phase I study for patients with solid tumors and lymphoma.

Six Additional Gene Targets

The company also has rights to six additional mRNA targets that are being evaluated in early preclinical studies.

Royalties

The company also licenses its PEGylation platform for various products, such as PEGINTRON (peginterferon alfa-2b), which is marketed by Merck Corporation; Macugen (pegaptanib sodium injection), which is marketed by OSI Pharmaceuticals, Inc. and Pfizer Inc.; and CIMZIA (certolizumab pegol), which is marketed by UCB Pharma.

The company has out-licensed its proprietary PEGylation and single-chain antibody (SCA) technologies on its own and through agreements with Nektar Therapeutics, Inc. (Nektar) and Micromet AG (Micromet).

Dispositions

In January 2010, the company sold its specialty pharmaceutical business, consisting principally of its products segment and contract manufacturing segment.

Competition

Technology

ANALYSIS FEATURES

SWOT Analysis

SWOT, which stands for Strengths, Weaknesses, Opportunities and Threats, is an analytical framework that identifies the internal and external factors that are favorable and unfavorable for a company.

Enhanced SWOT Analysis

Enhanced SWOT is a 3x3 grid that arranges strengths, weaknesses, opportunities and threats into one scheme:

How to use the strengths to take advantage of the opportunities?

How to use the strengths to reduce likelihood and impact of the threats?

How to overcome the weaknesses that obstruct taking advantage of the opportunities?

How to overcome the weaknesses that can make the threats a reality?

Upon answering these questions a company can develop a project plan to improve its business performance.

PESTEL Analysis

PESTEL (also termed as PESTLE) is an ideal tool to strategically analyze what influence different outside factors – political, economic, sociocultural, technological, environmental and legal – exert on a business to later chart its long term targets.

Being part of the external analysis when carrying out a strategic assessment or performing a market study, PESTEL gives an overview of diverse macro-environmental factors that any company should thoughtfully consider. By perceiving these outside environments, businesses can maximally benefit from the opportunities while minimizing the threats to the organization.

Key Factors Examined by PESTEL Analysis:

Political – What opportunities and pressures are brought by political bodies and what is the degree of public regulations' impact on the business?

Economic – What economic policies, trends and structures are expected to affect the organization, what is this influence's degree?

Sociological – What cultural and societal aspects will work upon the demand for the business's products and operations?

Technological – What impact do the technological aspects, innovations, incentives and barriers have on the organization?

Environmental – What environmental and ecological facets, both locally and farther afield, are likely to predetermine the business?

Legal – What laws and legislation will exert influence on the style the business is carried out?

IFE, EFE, IE Matrices

The Internal Factor Evaluation matrix (IFE matrix) is a strategic management tool helping audit or evaluate major weaknesses and strengths in a business's functional areas. In addition, IFE matrix serves as a basis for identifying and assessing relationships amongst those areas. The IFE matrix is utilised in strategy formulation.

The External Factor Evaluation matrix (EFE matrix) is a tool of strategic management that is typically utilised to assess current market conditions. It is an ideal instrument for visualising and prioritising the threats and opportunities a firm is facing.

The essential difference between the above mentioned matrices lies in the type of factors incorporated in the model; whilst the latter is engaged in internal factors, the former deals exceptionally with external factors – those exposed to social, political, economic, legal, etc. external forces.

Being a continuation of the EFE matrix and IFE matrix models, the Internal External matrix (IE matrix) rests upon an investigation of external and internal business factors integrated into one suggestive model.

Porter Five Forces Analysis

The Porter's five forces analysis studies the industry of operation and helps the company find new sources of competitive advantage. The analysis surveys an industry through five major questions:

What composes a threat of substitute products and services?

Is there a threat of new competitors entering the market?

What is the intensity of competitive rivalry?

How big is the bargaining power of buyers?

How significant is the bargaining power of suppliers?

VRIO Analysis

VRIO stands for Value, Rarity, Imitability, Organization. This analysis helps to evaluate all company's resources and capabilities and bring them together into one aggregate table that includes:

Tangible resources

Financial

Physical

Technological

Organizational

Intangible resources

Human

Innovation and Creativity

Reputation

Organizational capabilities

The result of the analysis gives a clear picture of company's competitive and economic implications, answering the questions if the resources mentioned above are:

Valuable?

Rare?

Costly to imitate?

Organized properly?
