About First Medical Group, Inc.

First Medical Group, Inc (FMG or the Company) was formed as a result of a merger between The Lehigh Group, Inc (Lehigh) and First Medical Corporation in 1997. The Company owns and operates medical clinics in Eastern Europe. The Company, through its management company, American Medical Centers Management Company, Ltd (AMC), owns and operates outpatient and ancillary healthcare facilities modeled after the American healthcare system. AMC's healthcare facilities are structured as A, B, or C type facilities. The C type facility is a full service outpatient primary care center with those services provided as listed below, dependent upon both market and demand. The B type clinic is similar to a C model but with increased diagnostics, inpatient care facilities and between ten to fifteen overnight medical beds. The A type facility provides both inpatient and outpatient care with 50 to 300 medical beds. The company operates five C locations in Moscow, Russia; St. Petersburg, Russia; Kiev, Ukraine; Prague in the Czech Republic; and Warsaw, Poland. In addition, three B facilities are under construction in those markets which are to be completed in the third quarter of 1999, and the company is in the process of opening one additional C facility in Middle Asia which is scheduled to open in the fourth quarter of 1999.

The Company's services include but are not limited to: trauma and emergency care, general practice, family practice, full diagnostics, radiology, pharmacy, dentistry, pathology, psychiatry and most specialty groups such as cardiology, pediatrics, oncology, gynecology, orthopedics, and dermatology. The Company strives to deliver a comprehensive range of medical services to meet the specific needs of its clients in each of its markets. The Company employs American board certified doctors, nurses, and ancillary personnel. Nationals are also employed after being fully credentialed.

Customers

Eighty percent of the company's client base is represented by two specific groups, expatriates and local employees of multinational corporations (to include management) and nationals (referred to as those persons or groups of local citizens that desire, appreciate and demand the American health care delivery system both in outpatient and inpatient care). Tourists, students, diplomats, and non-resident members that frequently travel to those markets represent the remainder of this client base.

Subsidiaries

The Company maintains the following subsidiaries: First Medical Corporation, a Delaware corporation; First Medical Group International, Ltd., a British Virgin Island Corporation; American Medical Centers Management Company, Ltd., a British Virgin Island corporation; American Medical Clinics Moscow, Inc., a Cayman Island corporation; American Medical Center-St. Petersburg Ltd., a British Virgin Island Corporation; American Medical Centers Sp. z.o.o., a Poland corporation and American Medical Centers s.r.o., a Czech Republic corporation.
