Gannett Co., Inc. operates as an international media and marketing solutions company. The company provides consumers with the information they want and connects them to their communities of interest through multiple platforms, including the Internet, mobile, newspapers, magazines, and TV stations.

Segments

The company has three principal business segments: Publishing, Digital, and Broadcasting.

Publishing/The United States

The company's U.S. newspapers, including USA TODAY, reach 13.0 million readers every weekday and 12.8 million readers every Sunday — providing critical news and information from their customers' neighborhoods and around the globe. Its local domestic daily newspapers also operate integrated affiliated Web sites, and USA TODAY operates USATODAY.com.

As of December 27, 2009, the company operated 83 U.S. daily newspapers, including USA TODAY, and approximately 650 non-daily local publications in 31 states and Guam. The U.S. Community Publishing (USCP) division and USA TODAY are headquartered in McLean, VA. The company's 83 U.S. daily newspapers have a combined daily paid circulation of approximately 5.7 million.

The company's local newspapers are managed through its U.S. Community Publishing division. These newspapers are positioned in major, mid-size, and small markets. The company publishes in major markets, such as Phoenix, Arizona; Indianapolis, Indiana; Cincinnati, Ohio; Des Moines, Iowa; Nashville, Tennessee; Asbury Park, New Jersey; Louisville, Kentucky; Westchester, New York; and Rochester, New York.

The company's mid-sized markets are represented by Poughkeepsie, New York; Salem, Oregon; Fort Myers, Florida; Appleton, Wisconsin; Palm Springs, California; Montgomery, Alabama; and Greenville, South Carolina. Its smaller markets include St. George, Utah; Fort Collins, Colorado; Sheboygan, Wisconsin; Iowa City, Iowa; and Ithaca, New York.

USA TODAY is general-interest daily newspaper. It is produced at facilities in McLean, VA, and transmitted via satellite to offset printing plants around the country. It is printed at Gannett plants in 14 U.S. markets and commercially at offset plants, not owned by the company, in 18 other U.S. markets.

Other businesses that complement, support or are managed and reported within the publishing segment include USA WEEKEND, Clipper Magazine, Army Times Publishing, Gannett Healthcare Group, and Gannett Offset. In 2009, Gannett News Service became part of ContentOne; Gannett Retail Advertising Group represents the company's local newspapers in the sale of advertising to national and regional franchise businesses; Gannett Direct Marketing offers direct-marketing services; and Gannett Media Technologies International (GMTI) develops and markets software and other products for the publishing industry and provides technology support for the company's newspaper and Web operations.

Publishing/The United Kingdom

The company's subsidiary, Newsquest, publishes 17 daily paid-for newspapers and approximately 200 weekly newspapers, magazines, and trade publications in the U.K., as well as a range of niche products. Newsquest's specialist magazine unit launched two new products: Pensions Insight and Fighting Fit, magazines that complement its existing product portfolio. Newsquest owns half of the online employment Web site, fish4jobs.co.uk., which has 3.2 million users.

Digital Segment

The Digital segment includes CareerBuilder and ShopLocal, as well as PointRoll, Planet Discover, Schedule Star, and Ripple6.

CareerBuilder is an employment Web site in North America. CareerBuilder operates Web sites in 18 countries outside the U.S., including the U.K., France, Spain, Germany, India, and Greece. CareerBuilder offers job postings and related products to employers.

ANALYSIS FEATURES

SWOT Analysis

SWOT, which stands for Strengths, Weaknesses, Opportunities and Threats, is an analytical framework that identifies the internal and external factors that are favorable and unfavorable for a company.

Enhanced SWOT Analysis

Enhanced SWOT is a 3x3 grid that arranges strengths, weaknesses, opportunities and threats into one scheme:

How to use the strengths to take advantage of the opportunities?

How to use the strengths to reduce likelihood and impact of the threats?

How to overcome the weaknesses that obstruct taking advantage of the opportunities?

How to overcome the weaknesses that can make the threats a reality?

Upon answering these questions a company can develop a project plan to improve its business performance.

PESTEL Analysis

PESTEL (also termed as PESTLE) is an ideal tool to strategically analyze what influence different outside factors – political, economic, sociocultural, technological, environmental and legal – exert on a business to later chart its long term targets.

Being part of the external analysis when carrying out a strategic assessment or performing a market study, PESTEL gives an overview of diverse macro-environmental factors that any company should thoughtfully consider. By perceiving these outside environments, businesses can maximally benefit from the opportunities while minimizing the threats to the organization.

Key Factors Examined by PESTEL Analysis:

Political – What opportunities and pressures are brought by political bodies and what is the degree of public regulations' impact on the business?

Economic – What economic policies, trends and structures are expected to affect the organization, what is this influence's degree?

Sociological – What cultural and societal aspects will work upon the demand for the business's products and operations?

Technological – What impact do the technological aspects, innovations, incentives and barriers have on the organization?

Environmental – What environmental and ecological facets, both locally and farther afield, are likely to predetermine the business?

Legal – What laws and legislation will exert influence on the style the business is carried out?

IFE, EFE, IE Matrices

The Internal Factor Evaluation matrix (IFE matrix) is a strategic management tool helping audit or evaluate major weaknesses and strengths in a business's functional areas. In addition, IFE matrix serves as a basis for identifying and assessing relationships amongst those areas. The IFE matrix is utilised in strategy formulation.

The External Factor Evaluation matrix (EFE matrix) is a tool of strategic management that is typically utilised to assess current market conditions. It is an ideal instrument for visualising and prioritising the threats and opportunities a firm is facing.

The essential difference between the above mentioned matrices lies in the type of factors incorporated in the model; whilst the latter is engaged in internal factors, the former deals exceptionally with external factors – those exposed to social, political, economic, legal, etc. external forces.

Being a continuation of the EFE matrix and IFE matrix models, the Internal External matrix (IE matrix) rests upon an investigation of external and internal business factors integrated into one suggestive model.

Porter Five Forces Analysis

The Porter's five forces analysis studies the industry of operation and helps the company find new sources of competitive advantage. The analysis surveys an industry through five major questions:

What composes a threat of substitute products and services?

Is there a threat of new competitors entering the market?

What is the intensity of competitive rivalry?

How big is the bargaining power of buyers?

How significant is the bargaining power of suppliers?

VRIO Analysis

VRIO stands for Value, Rarity, Imitability, Organization. This analysis helps to evaluate all company's resources and capabilities and bring them together into one aggregate table that includes:

Tangible resources

Financial

Physical

Technological

Organizational

Intangible resources

Human

Innovation and Creativity

Reputation

Organizational capabilities

The result of the analysis gives a clear picture of company's competitive and economic implications, answering the questions if the resources mentioned above are:

Valuable?

Rare?

Costly to imitate?

Organized properly?
