About Global Medical Products Holdings Inc.

Global Medical Products Holdings, Inc. (the Company) was incorporated in 1997 under the laws of the State of Nevada. The company is a development stage company, engaged in distribution and manufacturing services in the Peoples Republic of China to western medical supply and device companies.

The company's subsidiaries are Cerno Holdings, Ltd. (Cerno), incorporated under the laws of the State of Nevada in 2000; Acquagiene Products Unlimited (Aqua), incorporated under the laws of the State of Nevada in 2001; and E Z Trac, Inc incorporated under the laws of the State of Nevada in 2002.

During January, 2002, the Company terminated all activities in both Cerno and Acquagiene. These corporations presently have no business attached to them.

Principal products or services and their markets

Equipment and Other Services.

The Company intends to proceed to develop its principal business on four separate but related fronts: (a) Proceed with developing the business of Global Glass Source LTD's glass sales in the United States; (b) Leveraging the Company's business presence in China through its manufacturing and distribution associations and affiliations; (c) Further developing the business of its EZ Trac Labs; and (d) developing the Company's affiliation with Zhongshan Hospital Group in China.

Global Glass Source, Ltd. is a Hong Kong corporation that imports and sells glass products in the United States and Canada through its primary distribution contract with H & H Glass in the United States. The specific glass products sold by Global Glass Source to H & H Glass include glass bottles used in food service, such as bottles for beverage products; medical glass products such as test tubes and Petri dishes; and pharmaceutical glass products. H & H Glass then services three larger accounts that also act as distribution conduits to various food and pharmaceutical industry clients.

Leveraging the Company's presence in China will depend upon the Company taking action to attract medical products clients in the United States that wish to participate in the developing Chinese medical products market.

The Company's EZ Trac Labs division has an established base of clients for its "micro sphere" products, and also enjoys established revenue streams. The Company plans to continue to develop EZ Trac's business, and intends to invest in hiring competent personnel to manage and develop EZ Trac's present and ongoing business. EZ Trac presently has in place contracts for the sale of its products in Canada, Japan, Great Britain, Sweden and Germany.

On December 27, 2002, the Company entered into a cooperative affiliation with the Zhongshan Hospital Group, one of the largest teaching hospitals in China, and a center for the research and treatment of cardiac illness.

ANALYSIS FEATURES

SWOT Analysis

SWOT, which stands for Strengths, Weaknesses, Opportunities and Threats, is an analytical framework that identifies the internal and external factors that are favorable and unfavorable for a company.

Enhanced SWOT Analysis

Enhanced SWOT is a 3x3 grid that arranges strengths, weaknesses, opportunities and threats into one scheme:

How to use the strengths to take advantage of the opportunities?

How to use the strengths to reduce likelihood and impact of the threats?

How to overcome the weaknesses that obstruct taking advantage of the opportunities?

How to overcome the weaknesses that can make the threats a reality?

Upon answering these questions a company can develop a project plan to improve its business performance.

PESTEL Analysis

PESTEL (also termed as PESTLE) is an ideal tool to strategically analyze what influence different outside factors – political, economic, sociocultural, technological, environmental and legal – exert on a business to later chart its long term targets.

Being part of the external analysis when carrying out a strategic assessment or performing a market study, PESTEL gives an overview of diverse macro-environmental factors that any company should thoughtfully consider. By perceiving these outside environments, businesses can maximally benefit from the opportunities while minimizing the threats to the organization.

Key Factors Examined by PESTEL Analysis:

Political – What opportunities and pressures are brought by political bodies and what is the degree of public regulations' impact on the business?

Economic – What economic policies, trends and structures are expected to affect the organization, what is this influence's degree?

Sociological – What cultural and societal aspects will work upon the demand for the business's products and operations?

Technological – What impact do the technological aspects, innovations, incentives and barriers have on the organization?

Environmental – What environmental and ecological facets, both locally and farther afield, are likely to predetermine the business?

Legal – What laws and legislation will exert influence on the style the business is carried out?

IFE, EFE, IE Matrices

The Internal Factor Evaluation matrix (IFE matrix) is a strategic management tool helping audit or evaluate major weaknesses and strengths in a business's functional areas. In addition, IFE matrix serves as a basis for identifying and assessing relationships amongst those areas. The IFE matrix is utilised in strategy formulation.

The External Factor Evaluation matrix (EFE matrix) is a tool of strategic management that is typically utilised to assess current market conditions. It is an ideal instrument for visualising and prioritising the threats and opportunities a firm is facing.

The essential difference between the above mentioned matrices lies in the type of factors incorporated in the model; whilst the latter is engaged in internal factors, the former deals exceptionally with external factors – those exposed to social, political, economic, legal, etc. external forces.

Being a continuation of the EFE matrix and IFE matrix models, the Internal External matrix (IE matrix) rests upon an investigation of external and internal business factors integrated into one suggestive model.

Porter Five Forces Analysis

The Porter's five forces analysis studies the industry of operation and helps the company find new sources of competitive advantage. The analysis surveys an industry through five major questions:

What composes a threat of substitute products and services?

Is there a threat of new competitors entering the market?

What is the intensity of competitive rivalry?

How big is the bargaining power of buyers?

How significant is the bargaining power of suppliers?

VRIO Analysis

VRIO stands for Value, Rarity, Imitability, Organization. This analysis helps to evaluate all company's resources and capabilities and bring them together into one aggregate table that includes:

Tangible resources

Financial

Physical

Technological

Organizational

Intangible resources

Human

Innovation and Creativity

Reputation

Organizational capabilities

The result of the analysis gives a clear picture of company's competitive and economic implications, answering the questions if the resources mentioned above are:

Valuable?

Rare?

Costly to imitate?

Organized properly?
