About Infinity Medical Group, Inc.

Iceberg Corporation of America (the Company) was organized in the State of Nevada in 1989. Until June of 1999, the Company conducted no business. On June 25, 1999, the Company acquired Iceberg Industries Corporation (Iceberg Industries). Iceberg Industries, a development stage company, was incorporated in Newfoundland, Canada in 1996. As a result of its acquisition of Iceberg Industries, the Company's principal activity is intended to be the commercial supply of premium beverage products, including iceberg water, beer and vodka, which utilize only water obtained from icebergs as the core ingredient.

Branding

The product family will initially carry the brand name "BOREALIS". This helps support the cold, northern image and mystique surrounding the Company's products. In Canada, "Borealis" will be used for water products only. Product has also been produced for Loblaw's and Provigo, two major Canadian supermarket chains. Iceberg Industries' initial family of products is iceberg water, iceberg vodka, iceberg beer and natural spring water.

New and exciting additions to the product line are currently in the planning process, including "ice tea" and other products that use water as a foundation.

Borealis Iceberg Water is an experience to be enjoyed and savoured. Taste tests conducted by prospective distributors have determined that iceberg water has the softest, most natural taste of any bottled water on the market.

Borealis Iceberg Vodka is an ultra-smooth, four-column distilled spirit. Iceberg water is used in both the distillation and blending processes.

Borealis Iceberg Beer is craft brewed in small batches for superior quality and consistency at a highly regarded Atlantic Canada brewery.

Target Markets

The initial marketing thrust has been in Canada and the United States, with the United Kingdom as an additional key market.

ANALYSIS FEATURES

SWOT Analysis

SWOT, which stands for Strengths, Weaknesses, Opportunities and Threats, is an analytical framework that identifies the internal and external factors that are favorable and unfavorable for a company.

Enhanced SWOT Analysis

Enhanced SWOT is a 3x3 grid that arranges strengths, weaknesses, opportunities and threats into one scheme:

How to use the strengths to take advantage of the opportunities?

How to use the strengths to reduce likelihood and impact of the threats?

How to overcome the weaknesses that obstruct taking advantage of the opportunities?

How to overcome the weaknesses that can make the threats a reality?

Upon answering these questions a company can develop a project plan to improve its business performance.

PESTEL Analysis

PESTEL (also termed as PESTLE) is an ideal tool to strategically analyze what influence different outside factors – political, economic, sociocultural, technological, environmental and legal – exert on a business to later chart its long term targets.

Being part of the external analysis when carrying out a strategic assessment or performing a market study, PESTEL gives an overview of diverse macro-environmental factors that any company should thoughtfully consider. By perceiving these outside environments, businesses can maximally benefit from the opportunities while minimizing the threats to the organization.

Key Factors Examined by PESTEL Analysis:

Political – What opportunities and pressures are brought by political bodies and what is the degree of public regulations' impact on the business?

Economic – What economic policies, trends and structures are expected to affect the organization, what is this influence's degree?

Sociological – What cultural and societal aspects will work upon the demand for the business's products and operations?

Technological – What impact do the technological aspects, innovations, incentives and barriers have on the organization?

Environmental – What environmental and ecological facets, both locally and farther afield, are likely to predetermine the business?

Legal – What laws and legislation will exert influence on the style the business is carried out?

IFE, EFE, IE Matrices

The Internal Factor Evaluation matrix (IFE matrix) is a strategic management tool helping audit or evaluate major weaknesses and strengths in a business's functional areas. In addition, IFE matrix serves as a basis for identifying and assessing relationships amongst those areas. The IFE matrix is utilised in strategy formulation.

The External Factor Evaluation matrix (EFE matrix) is a tool of strategic management that is typically utilised to assess current market conditions. It is an ideal instrument for visualising and prioritising the threats and opportunities a firm is facing.

The essential difference between the above mentioned matrices lies in the type of factors incorporated in the model; whilst the latter is engaged in internal factors, the former deals exceptionally with external factors – those exposed to social, political, economic, legal, etc. external forces.

Being a continuation of the EFE matrix and IFE matrix models, the Internal External matrix (IE matrix) rests upon an investigation of external and internal business factors integrated into one suggestive model.

Porter Five Forces Analysis

The Porter's five forces analysis studies the industry of operation and helps the company find new sources of competitive advantage. The analysis surveys an industry through five major questions:

What composes a threat of substitute products and services?

Is there a threat of new competitors entering the market?

What is the intensity of competitive rivalry?

How big is the bargaining power of buyers?

How significant is the bargaining power of suppliers?

VRIO Analysis

VRIO stands for Value, Rarity, Imitability, Organization. This analysis helps to evaluate all company's resources and capabilities and bring them together into one aggregate table that includes:

Tangible resources

Financial

Physical

Technological

Organizational

Intangible resources

Human

Innovation and Creativity

Reputation

Organizational capabilities

The result of the analysis gives a clear picture of company's competitive and economic implications, answering the questions if the resources mentioned above are:

Valuable?

Rare?

Costly to imitate?

Organized properly?
