About Lincoln National Corp.

Lincoln National Corporation, a holding company, operates multiple insurance and investment management businesses. Through its business segments, the company sells a range of wealth protection, accumulation, and retirement income products and solutions. The company's products include fixed and indexed annuities, variable annuities, universal life insurance (UL), variable universal life insurance (VUL), linked-benefit UL, term life insurance, mutual funds, and group life insurance.

Segments

The company's operating businesses are divided into two operating businesses — Retirement Solutions and Insurance Solutions.

RETIREMENT SOLUTIONS

The Retirement Solutions business, with principal operations in Radnor, Pennsylvania; Fort Wayne, Indiana; Hartford, Connecticut; and Greensboro, North Carolina and additional operations in Concord, New Hampshire and Arlington Heights, Illinois, provides its products through two segments: Annuities and Defined Contribution. Products for both segments are distributed through a range of intermediaries, including both affiliated and unaffiliated channels including advisors, consultants, brokers, banks and wirehouses.

Retirement Solutions — Annuities

The Annuities segment provides tax-deferred growth and lifetime income opportunities for its clients by offering fixed and variable annuities. The Annuities segment offers non-qualified and qualified fixed and variable annuities to individuals.

Products

Variable Annuities

A variable annuity provides the contract holder the ability to direct the investment of premium deposits into one or more sub-accounts offered through the product (variable portion) or into a fixed account with a guaranteed return (fixed portion). The underlying assets of the sub-accounts are managed with in a special insurance series of mutual funds. The company offers A-share, B-share, C-share, L-share, and bonus variable annuities.

The company offers guaranteed benefit riders with certain of its variable annuity products, such as a guaranteed death benefit (GDB), a guaranteed withdrawal benefit (GWB), a guaranteed income benefit (GIB) and a combination of such benefits. Most of its variable annuity products also offer the choice of a fixed option that provides for guaranteed interest credited to the account value.

The GDB features offered include those where the company contractually guarantee to the contract holder that upon death, the company would return no less than: the total deposits made to the contract, adjusted to reflect any partial withdrawals; the total deposits made to the contract, adjusted to reflect any partial withdrawals, plus a minimum return; or the highest contract value on a specified anniversary date adjusted to reflect any partial withdrawals following the contract anniversary.

The Lincoln SmartSecurity Advantage benefit is a GWB rider that offers the contract holder a guarantee equal to the initial deposit (or contract value, if elected after issue), adjusted for any subsequent purchase payments or withdrawals. There are two elective step-up options: a one-year option and a five-year option.

The company offers other product riders including i4LIFE Advantage and 4LATER Advantage. GIB is an optional feature available with i4LIFE Advantage that guarantees regular income payments would not fall below 75% of the highest income payment on a specified anniversary date. 4LATER Advantage provides a minimum income base used to determine the GIB floor when a client begins income payments under i4LIFE Advantage. The income base is equal to the initial deposit and increases by 15% every three years.

The Lincoln Lifetime Income Advantage and Lincoln Lifetime Income Advantage Plus are hybrid benefit riders combining aspects of GWB and GIB. Both benefit riders allow the contract holder the ability to take income at a maximum rate of 5% of the guaranteed amount when they are above the lifetime income age or income through i4LIFE Advantage with the GIB.

Fixed Annuities

The company offers single and flexible premium fixed deferred annuities to the individual annuities market. Single premium fixed deferred annuities are contrac
