About Master Glaziers Karate International, Inc.

Master Glazier's Karate International, Inc (the Company) was incorporated in 1993 as a Delaware corporation. The company manages and operates two Master Glazier Karate Centers (the Karate Centers) located in Pennsylvania. The Company was formed to acquire and operate several companies engaged in the martial arts instruction service business. Until 1997, the Company operated seven (7) Karate Centers one (1) directly and six (6) through wholly owned subsidiaries. During the two year period following the Company's initial public offering in 1993, the Company pursued an aggressive expansion program. The Company then aggressively pursued acquiring existing martial arts centers. The Company discussed potential transactions with a limited number of acquisition targets. After unsuccessful attempts at negotiating an acceptable acquisition transaction, the Company refocused its attention to divesting its unprofitable Karate Centers.

Courses; Payment Plans

At the Karate Centers located in Bethlehem and Allentown, Pa., the Company currently offers a basic training course, a black belt course, a second degree black belt course and master training course. The basic training course is divided into four (4) different achievement levels, the black belt course is divided into twelve 12 different achievement levels (which encompasses the basic training program) and the second degree black belt course has one (1) achievement level. The introductory level for the basic training course is offered approximately four (4) times each week. Students may therefore join the program at any time by attending an introductory class or classes.

Other Products

The Company sells a variety of martial arts products and clothing in pro shops maintained at each of the Karate Centers. The Company obtains all of such products from suppliers which are unaffiliated with the company. Some vendors print on or emboss the "Master Glazier's Karate" logo on many of such products.

ANALYSIS FEATURES

SWOT Analysis

SWOT, which stands for Strengths, Weaknesses, Opportunities and Threats, is an analytical framework that identifies the internal and external factors that are favorable and unfavorable for a company.

Enhanced SWOT Analysis

Enhanced SWOT is a 3×3 grid that arranges strengths, weaknesses, opportunities and threats into one scheme:

How to use the strengths to take advantage of the opportunities?

How to use the strengths to reduce likelihood and impact of the threats?

How to overcome the weaknesses that obstruct taking advantage of the opportunities?

How to overcome the weaknesses that can make the threats a reality?

Upon answering these questions a company can develop a project plan to improve its business performance.

PESTEL Analysis

PESTEL (also termed as PESTLE) is an ideal tool to strategically analyze what influence different outside factors – political, economic, sociocultural, technological, environmental and legal – exert on a business to later chart its long term targets.

Being part of the external analysis when carrying out a strategic assessment or performing a market study, PESTEL gives an overview of diverse macro-environmental factors that any company should thoughtfully consider. By perceiving these outside environments, businesses can maximally benefit from the opportunities while minimizing the threats to the organization.

Key Factors Examined by PESTEL Analysis:

Political – What opportunities and pressures are brought by political bodies and what is the degree of public regulations' impact on the business?

Economic – What economic policies, trends and structures are expected to affect the organization, what is this influence's degree?

Sociological – What cultural and societal aspects will work upon the demand for the business's products and operations?

Technological – What impact do the technological aspects, innovations, incentives and barriers have on the organization?

Environmental – What environmental and ecological facets, both locally and farther afield, are likely to predetermine the business?

Legal – What laws and legislation will exert influence on the style the business is carried out?

IFE, EFE, IE Matrices

The Internal Factor Evaluation matrix (IFE matrix) is a strategic management tool helping audit or evaluate major weaknesses and strengths in a business's functional areas. In addition, IFE matrix serves as a basis for identifying and assessing relationships amongst those areas. The IFE matrix is utilised in strategy formulation.

The External Factor Evaluation matrix (EFE matrix) is a tool of strategic management that is typically utilised to assess current market conditions. It is an ideal instrument for visualising and prioritising the threats and opportunities a firm is facing.

The essential difference between the above mentioned matrices lies in the type of factors incorporated in the model; whilst the latter is engaged in internal factors, the former deals exceptionally with external factors – those exposed to social, political, economic, legal, etc. external forces.

Being a continuation of the EFE matrix and IFE matrix models, the Internal External matrix (IE matrix) rests upon an investigation of external and internal business factors integrated into one suggestive model.

Porter Five Forces Analysis

The Porter's five forces analysis studies the industry of operation and helps the company find new sources of competitive advantage. The analysis surveys an industry through five major questions:

What composes a threat of substitute products and services?

Is there a threat of new competitors entering the market?

What is the intensity of competitive rivalry?

How big is the bargaining power of buyers?

How significant is the bargaining power of suppliers?

VRIO Analysis

VRIO stands for Value, Rarity, Imitability, Organization. This analysis helps to evaluate all company's resources and capabilities and bring them together into one aggregate table that includes:

Tangible resources

Financial

Physical

Technological

Organizational

Intangible resources

Human

Innovation and Creativity

Reputation

Organizational capabilities

The result of the analysis gives a clear picture of company's competitive and economic implications, answering the questions if the resources mentioned above are:

Valuable?

Rare?

Costly to imitate?

Organized properly?
