About Municipal Mortgage & Equity, LLC

Municipal Mortgage & Equity, LLC arranges and provides debt and equity financing for developers and owners of multifamily and commercial real estate projects. The company locates investment opportunities and syndicates these investments to interested investors, and retains them for its own investment. It also provides investment management and advisory services for institutional investors.

The company's business consists primarily of activities involving investments and financings secured by multifamily or commercial real estate, the majority of which generates tax-exempt income, tax credits or other tax benefits for investors.

The company has also been engaged in the financing of renewable energy generation projects, which also generates tax credits and other tax benefits for investors. It also originates loans for its own account and for sale to others. The majority of its loan business is related to construction loans on multifamily projects that is held until construction completion and then the company provides permanent financing on these projects.

These permanent loans are sold to government sponsored enterprises (GSEs), primarily Federal National Mortgage Association (Fannie Mae) and Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation (Freddie Mac), or are insured by the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) and sold to investors as securitized mortgage backed securities after they are guaranteed by the government agency Government National Mortgage Association (Ginnie Mae).

The company also distributes and places commercial real estate loans into funds that it manages for institutional investors.

Divisions

The company operates through three primary divisions as follows:

The Affordable Housing Division conducts activities related to affordable housing and is further subdivided into three segments: Tax Credit Equity which creates investment funds and finds investors for such funds that receive tax credits for investing in affordable housing partnerships (referred to as syndication of affordable housing tax credit funds or Low Income Housing Tax Credit Funds — LIHTC Funds); Affordable Bonds which originates and invests primarily in tax-exempt bonds secured by affordable housing; and Affordable Debt which originates and invests in loans secured by affordable housing.

The Real Estate Division conducts real estate finance activities and is further subdivided into two segments: Agency Lending which originates both market rate and affordable housing multifamily loans with the intention of selling them to government sponsored entities (Federal National Mortgage Association (Fannie Mae) and the Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation (Freddie Mac)) or through programs created by them, or sells the permanent loans to third party investors and the loans are guaranteed by the Government National Mortgage Association (Ginnie Mae) and insured by the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD); and Merchant Banking which provides loan and bond originations, loan servicing, asset management, investment advisory and other services to institutional investors that finance or invest in various commercial real estate projects. In some cases, the company originates loans and bonds for its own investment purposes.

The Renewable Ventures Division finances, owns and operates renewable energy projects.
