About NutriSystem Inc.

NutriSystem, Inc. provides weight management products and services in the United States and Canada. The company's customers purchase monthly food packages of shelf-stable food containing 28 breakfasts, lunches, dinners and desserts, which they supplement with fresh dairy, fruit, salad, vegetables, and low-glycemic carbohydrate items.

Products and Services

The company provides a weight management program, consisting primarily of a pre-packaged food program and counseling. These services are complemented with relevant information on diet, nutrition, and exercise, which is provided on its community Web site and emailed to its customers bi-weekly. Additionally, online weight management tools are available and include the interactive Mindset Makeover guide.

The company's Nutrisystem program consists of approximately 150 low calorie, portion-controlled items that are designed to rank low on the Glycemic Index, thereby providing dieters with a balanced intake of 'good' carbohydrates, proteins and fats. The Glycemic Index is a measure of the quality of carbohydrates in foods. Foods on the lower end of the index are generally considered 'good' carbohydrates. The company's program is perfectly portioned for weight loss and balanced to meet national dietary guidelines for Americans. The company also has worked to reduce the sodium content of its meal program to an average of 1800mg per day.

In April 2009, the company launched the marketing of its Nutrisystem D program, a low glycemic program specifically designed for those with type 2 diabetes who need to lose weight.

During 2009, the company also began offering its program at Costco Wholesale Corporation's warehouse club outlets (Costco) through the use of prepaid program cards. Expanding further in the retail area, the company also offers the Nutrisystem program in retailers, such as Walmart, Sam's Club, and Walgreens.

In December 2009, the company launched Nutrisystem Jumpstart, a program for men and women designed to help those who are looking to jumpstart their way to a healthier lifestyle. Nutrisystem Jumpstart showcased its 50 new foods and provided customers with extra tools and support to help them reach their weight-loss goals.

In October 2009, the company announced the introduction of the Nutrisystem program in Japan. Under its license agreement with House Foods International, the 'Nutrisystem J Diet' was launched and the program would be marketed at the House Foods ecommerce site. The Nutrisystem J Diet features nutritionally balanced pre-packaged foods and beverages delivered directly to the home and supported by personalized weight loss nutrition counseling. The new diet is a 14-day program consisting of two meals per day (meal menu plus light menu) and beverages.

In November 2008, the company entered into an agreement with Schwan's Home Service, a provider of fine frozen foods, for the development and distribution of frozen foods under the Nutrisystem brand. The program, which includes frozen foods (Nutrisystem Select), would improve Nutrisystem's tradition of weight loss and weight management. The program provides customers with premium fresh-frozen foods that complement Nutrisystem's prepared food weight loss programs and still adheres to Nutrisystem's nutritional guidelines.

In July 2008, the company acquired certain assets of Power Chow, LLC (d/b/a NuKitchen) (NuKitchen), a provider of premium, fresh prepared meals designed to promote weight management and healthy living. NuKitchen provides a menu of fresh, restaurant-quality prepared meals delivered daily to customers.

In 2008, the company also introduced the Flex program (Nutrisystem Flex), which is a 28-day program consisting of 20 days of food, its 'weekends off' program, which provides a less restrictive option to meet the needs and lifestyle of an important segment of dieting consumers. Nutrisystem Flex includes a Recipe Book (Nutrisystem, My Way) and a Dining Out Guide to help consumers make healthy choices and stay with in the program guidelines on their 'flex' days.

Customers

The company serves female customers, who are approximately 48 years of age and weighs 188 lbs.
