About Oak Tree Educational Partners, Inc.

Florham Consulting Corp., through its subsidiaries, provides review and update courses and study materials that aid Student Registered Nurse Anesthetists (SRNA) and Graduate Registered Nurse Anesthetists (GRNA) in preparation for the National Certifying Exam (NCE) throughout the continental United States.

The company also provides distance learning and residential training educational programs for students to become eligible for entry-level employment in various fields and industries. The company also offers a 600-page basic manual.

Program Offerings

The company's subsidiaries include Valley Anesthesia, Inc. and Valley Anesthesia Educational Programs, Inc. (collectively, Valley).

Seminars

Seminars are typically held in hotel conference rooms located close to airports to minimize logistical issues for traveling students. Registration for the seminars can be completed online, by mail or by telephone.

Manuals

Valley publishes a course manual which is purchased by students enrolled in the seminars and others. The course manual consists of approximately 600 pages and is printed by a third party.

MemoryMaster

Valley offers its MemoryMaster study guide collection of approximately 4,000 questions and answers to aid its students in preparation for the NCE by facilitating the memorization and understanding of a large body of anesthesia-related facts, concepts and issues. MemoryMaster content is categorized according to the outline provided by the Council on Certification of Nurse Anesthesia, which includes basic and related clinical sciences; equipment, instrumentation and technology; basic principles of anesthesia; advanced principles of anesthesia; and professional issues.

MemoryMaster is offered in two forms, a bound, soft covered book, and flash cards. The book provides the entire MemoryMaster content in a side-by-side format, with questions appearing on the left side of each page and the corresponding answers on the right side.

MemoryMaster is printed by the same third party source as the course manuals. MemoryMaster can also be ordered from the printers on an as needed basis.

Distance Learning Programs

The company, through Training Direct, LLC (Training Direct), offers distance learning programs. These provide an additional opportunity to individuals who may not have acquired all of the education they need and are unable to take advantage of residential training educational opportunities. It provides counseling and lesson assistance by telephone and through mail.

Training Direct's distance learning offerings include educational programs in various fields and industries, including medical office assistance; medical billing and coding; hotel-motel front office; veterinary assistant; paralegal; and pharmacy technician. Training Direct enrolls various students in its programs; from working executives in its distance education courses, to the unemployed who have been referred to it by various state agencies for its residential programs. Training Direct targets people looking to improve their careers or seeking to enter the Health Care Industry.

Medical Office Assistant Program

Training Direct's medical office assistant curriculum prepares the student for a range of entry-level office positions in different areas of the health industry. The curriculum prepares a student for employment in medical offices, clinics, public health departments and hospitals. The student acquires a basic understanding of medical terminology, records management, financial administration and administrative procedures which relate to the functioning of a medical office. An outline of the medical office assistant curriculum includes introduction to medical office assistance; introduction to medical terminology; advanced medical terminology and pharmacology; administrative medical assistance; medical, legal and ethical responsibilities; computers and information processing; patients' medical records; drug and prescription records; office maintenance and management; fees, credit and collection; health insurance systems; bookkeeping; payroll procedures; and job search techniques.

ANALYSIS FEATURES

SWOT Analysis

SWOT, which stands for Strengths, Weaknesses, Opportunities and Threats, is an analytical framework that identifies the internal and external factors that are favorable and unfavorable for a company.

Enhanced SWOT Analysis

Enhanced SWOT is a 3x3 grid that arranges strengths, weaknesses, opportunities and threats into one scheme:

How to use the strengths to take advantage of the opportunities?

How to use the strengths to reduce likelihood and impact of the threats?

How to overcome the weaknesses that obstruct taking advantage of the opportunities?

How to overcome the weaknesses that can make the threats a reality?

Upon answering these questions a company can develop a project plan to improve its business performance.

PESTEL Analysis

PESTEL (also termed as PESTLE) is an ideal tool to strategically analyze what influence different outside factors – political, economic, sociocultural, technological, environmental and legal – exert on a business to later chart its long term targets.

Being part of the external analysis when carrying out a strategic assessment or performing a market study, PESTEL gives an overview of diverse macro-environmental factors that any company should thoughtfully consider. By perceiving these outside environments, businesses can maximally benefit from the opportunities while minimizing the threats to the organization.

Key Factors Examined by PESTEL Analysis:

Political – What opportunities and pressures are brought by political bodies and what is the degree of public regulations' impact on the business?

Economic – What economic policies, trends and structures are expected to affect the organization, what is this influence's degree?

Sociological – What cultural and societal aspects will work upon the demand for the business's products and operations?

Technological – What impact do the technological aspects, innovations, incentives and barriers have on the organization?

Environmental – What environmental and ecological facets, both locally and farther afield, are likely to predetermine the business?

Legal – What laws and legislation will exert influence on the style the business is carried out?

IFE, EFE, IE Matrices

The Internal Factor Evaluation matrix (IFE matrix) is a strategic management tool helping audit or evaluate major weaknesses and strengths in a business's functional areas. In addition, IFE matrix serves as a basis for identifying and assessing relationships amongst those areas. The IFE matrix is utilised in strategy formulation.

The External Factor Evaluation matrix (EFE matrix) is a tool of strategic management that is typically utilised to assess current market conditions. It is an ideal instrument for visualising and prioritising the threats and opportunities a firm is facing.

The essential difference between the above mentioned matrices lies in the type of factors incorporated in the model; whilst the latter is engaged in internal factors, the former deals exceptionally with external factors – those exposed to social, political, economic, legal, etc. external forces.

Being a continuation of the EFE matrix and IFE matrix models, the Internal External matrix (IE matrix) rests upon an investigation of external and internal business factors integrated into one suggestive model.

Porter Five Forces Analysis

The Porter's five forces analysis studies the industry of operation and helps the company find new sources of competitive advantage. The analysis surveys an industry through five major questions:

What composes a threat of substitute products and services?

Is there a threat of new competitors entering the market?

What is the intensity of competitive rivalry?

How big is the bargaining power of buyers?

How significant is the bargaining power of suppliers?

VRIO Analysis

VRIO stands for Value, Rarity, Imitability, Organization. This analysis helps to evaluate all company's resources and capabilities and bring them together into one aggregate table that includes:

Tangible resources

Financial

Physical

Technological

Organizational

Intangible resources

Human

Innovation and Creativity

Reputation

Organizational capabilities

The result of the analysis gives a clear picture of company's competitive and economic implications, answering the questions if the resources mentioned above are:

Valuable?

Rare?

Costly to imitate?

Organized properly?
