About PHC Inc.

PHC, Inc., a national health care company, through its wholly owned subsidiaries, provides psychiatric services to individuals who have behavioral health disorders, including alcohol and drug dependency; and to individuals in the gaming and transportation industries.

The company's subsidiaries operate substance abuse treatment facilities in Utah and Virginia; four outpatient psychiatric facilities in Michigan; three outpatient psychiatric facilities in Nevada; one outpatient psychiatric facility in Pennsylvania; two psychiatric hospitals, one in Michigan and one in Nevada; and a residential treatment facility in Michigan. It provides management, administrative, and helpline services through contracts with major railroads and a call center contract with Wayne County, Michigan. The company also operates a Web site, Wellplace.com, which provides education and training for the behavioral health professional and Internet support services to its subsidiaries.

The company provides behavioral health services through inpatient and outpatient facilities. Its substance abuse facilities provide specialized treatment services to patients who typically have poor recovery prognoses and who are prone to relapse. Its psychiatric facilities provide inpatient psychiatric care, intensive outpatient treatment, and partial hospitalization programs to children, adolescents, and adults. The company's outpatient mental health clinics provide services to employees of major employers, as well as to managed care companies and Medicare and Medicaid clients.

Highland Ridge: Highland Ridge is a 41-bed, freestanding alcohol and drug treatment hospital. Highland Ridge provides services to individuals from the States through contracts with the Railroads and other major employers, most patients at this facility are from Utah and surrounding states. Individuals typically access Highland Ridge's services through professional referrals, family members, employers, employee assistance programs or contracts between the company and health maintenance organizations located in Utah.

Highland Ridge has contracted with Salt Lake County to provide medical detoxification services targeted to women. The hospital also operates a specialized continuing care support group to address the needs of women and minorities. Highland Ridge also offers aftercare assistance at programs located in areas of client concentration throughout the United States. Highland Ridge maintains a range of professional affiliations to serve the needs of discharged patients and other individuals not admitted to the hospital for treatment. Highland Ridge periodically conducts or participates in research projects.

Mount Regis: Mount Regis is a 25-bed, freestanding alcohol and drug treatment center located in Salem, Virginia, near Roanoke. In addition, Mount Regis operates Changes, an outpatient clinic, at its Salem, Virginia location. The Changes clinic provides structured outpatient treatment for patients who have been discharged from Mount Regis and for patients who do not need the formal structure of a residential treatment program. Mount Regis Center is sensitive to the needs of women and minorities. The majority of Mount Regis clients are from Virginia and surrounding states.

General Psychiatric Facilities

The company offers inpatient and partial hospitalization and psychiatric services. It also provides inpatient psychiatric services through Seven Hills Hospital located in Las Vegas, Nevada and residential treatment to adjudicated juveniles through Detroit Behavioral Institute, Inc. located in Detroit Michigan.
