About Quamtel, Inc.

Quamtel, Inc. provides prepaid and postpaid telecommunications services with an emphasis on transporting calls that originate from the United States and Canada and terminate to specific regions of the world.

The company's customers utilize its voice over Internet protocol (VoIP) network to place international calls at discounted rates. Its products and services are provisioned and sold online via its Web sites.

Products

The company's primary products are international prepaid calling services, primarily marketed as EasyTalk. Its network is integrated with its Web sites and provides customers with instant activation and immediate access to the service, eliminating the need to use a PIN or switch long distance carriers. Through automatic number identification recognition, it recognizes the telephone numbers customers register during the online sign up process. EasyTalk consumer features include 24 hour online and over the phone recharge, speed dial, PINless dialing and online access to account balance, call history, and purchase history. As of December 31, 2009, its had approximately 7,763 prepaid calling card customers, including EasyTalk customers.

The company's consumer based broadband Internet telephony product, RocketVoIP, allows customers to place unlimited local, long distance and international calls using their high-speed Internet connection. Included in RocketVoIP's monthly service fee are features, such as caller ID, call waiting, call forwarding, and enhanced voice mail. RocketVoIP customers have the option to use their cell phone to make local, long distance and international calls using the plan's included minutes. As of December 31, 2009, the company had approximately 611 Rocket VoIP customers.

The company's enhanced personal toll free service, My800Online, allows customers to obtain a toll free number and route it to any home, business or cell phone number in the world. Using My800Online's account management interface, customers can change the number their personal toll free number is routed to and view their call detail records and billing history online. The company is expanding My800Online to include virtual office features, such as auto attendant, faxing, personalized greetings, and enhanced voice mail to cater to the needs of small business owners on a tight budget.

The company's subsidiary, Data Jack, Inc., delivers nationwide mobile 3G data coverage through a proprietary USB device connected to any computer with a Windows or Mac operating system.
