About Savenergy Holdings, Inc.

WorldCast Interactive, Inc. (WorldCast or the company) was organized as a Florida corporation in 1996. In 1999, the company formed its wholly owned subsidiary, FutureTrak, Inc., to provide, on a subscription basis, entertainment, information and communication services to residents of multiple housing units. The Company operates its marine business through STI Group, Inc., another wholly owned subsidiary, formed in January 1999.

The Company provides satellite television, interactive content and other information services. The Company provides its services to the multiple-housing unit market, which includes apartment communities, condominium communities, college dormitories, hospitals, hotels, mobile home parks and private residential subdivisions. The Company's services include the installation of its signal distribution systems to deliver television and information services (including DIRECTV™ television services and high-speed Internet access) to subscribers.

The Multiple Housing Unit Market Business

Under an agreement with Golden Sky Systems, Inc., WorldCast is authorized to market and provide the programming services of DIRECTV to multiple housing units for which it has obtained the right to install its signal distribution system. DIRECTV is a provider of multi-channel direct broadcast satellite television services.

DIRECTV currently offers in excess of 220 channels of video and audio programming, including: video and audio services available for purchase in tiers for a monthly subscription fee; premium services available a la carte or in tiers for a monthly subscription fee; sports programming available for a yearly, seasonal or monthly subscription fee; and movies from major Hollywood studios and special events available for purchase on a pay-per-view basis.

WorldCast is also an authorized reseller of financial and weather information services provided by Data Transmission Network Corporation, and proposes to provide an array of other programming and services to residents of multiple housing units across the United States.

Products and Services

Signal Distribution Systems

In connection with its multiple housing unit operations, WorldCast proposes to implement video distribution designs and system architectures, which will vary based upon the unique layout and service requirements of each multiple housing unit community. At this time, WorldCast has not installed any units. WorldCast offers a variety of higher speed Internet access technologies dependent upon factors such as subscriber sign-up rates and the physical location of subscribers within a property.

Marine Receiver Antenna Equipment

WorldCast intends to offer marine customers a comprehensive satellite communications solution, including the components, antenna and software needed to receive and process audio and video programming.

Competition

In the satellite TV business, EchoStar is a competitor of DIRECTV in the United States. The market for satellite tracking systems and antennas is dominated by companies including Datron, KVH and SeaTel.

ANALYSIS FEATURES

SWOT Analysis

SWOT, which stands for Strengths, Weaknesses, Opportunities and Threats, is an analytical framework that identifies the internal and external factors that are favorable and unfavorable for a company.

Enhanced SWOT Analysis

Enhanced SWOT is a 3x3 grid that arranges strengths, weaknesses, opportunities and threats into one scheme:

How to use the strengths to take advantage of the opportunities?

How to use the strengths to reduce likelihood and impact of the threats?

How to overcome the weaknesses that obstruct taking advantage of the opportunities?

How to overcome the weaknesses that can make the threats a reality?

Upon answering these questions a company can develop a project plan to improve its business performance.

PESTEL Analysis

PESTEL (also termed as PESTLE) is an ideal tool to strategically analyze what influence different outside factors – political, economic, sociocultural, technological, environmental and legal – exert on a business to later chart its long term targets.

Being part of the external analysis when carrying out a strategic assessment or performing a market study, PESTEL gives an overview of diverse macro-environmental factors that any company should thoughtfully consider. By perceiving these outside environments, businesses can maximally benefit from the opportunities while minimizing the threats to the organization.

Key Factors Examined by PESTEL Analysis:

Political – What opportunities and pressures are brought by political bodies and what is the degree of public regulations' impact on the business?

Economic – What economic policies, trends and structures are expected to affect the organization, what is this influence's degree?

Sociological – What cultural and societal aspects will work upon the demand for the business's products and operations?

Technological – What impact do the technological aspects, innovations, incentives and barriers have on the organization?

Environmental – What environmental and ecological facets, both locally and farther afield, are likely to predetermine the business?

Legal – What laws and legislation will exert influence on the style the business is carried out?

IFE, EFE, IE Matrices

The Internal Factor Evaluation matrix (IFE matrix) is a strategic management tool helping audit or evaluate major weaknesses and strengths in a business's functional areas. In addition, IFE matrix serves as a basis for identifying and assessing relationships amongst those areas. The IFE matrix is utilised in strategy formulation.

The External Factor Evaluation matrix (EFE matrix) is a tool of strategic management that is typically utilised to assess current market conditions. It is an ideal instrument for visualising and prioritising the threats and opportunities a firm is facing.

The essential difference between the above mentioned matrices lies in the type of factors incorporated in the model; whilst the latter is engaged in internal factors, the former deals exceptionally with external factors – those exposed to social, political, economic, legal, etc. external forces.

Being a continuation of the EFE matrix and IFE matrix models, the Internal External matrix (IE matrix) rests upon an investigation of external and internal business factors integrated into one suggestive model.

Porter Five Forces Analysis

The Porter's five forces analysis studies the industry of operation and helps the company find new sources of competitive advantage. The analysis surveys an industry through five major questions:

What composes a threat of substitute products and services?

Is there a threat of new competitors entering the market?

What is the intensity of competitive rivalry?

How big is the bargaining power of buyers?

How significant is the bargaining power of suppliers?

VRIO Analysis

VRIO stands for Value, Rarity, Imitability, Organization. This analysis helps to evaluate all company's resources and capabilities and bring them together into one aggregate table that includes:

Tangible resources

Financial

Physical

Technological

Organizational

Intangible resources

Human

Innovation and Creativity

Reputation

Organizational capabilities

The result of the analysis gives a clear picture of company's competitive and economic implications, answering the questions if the resources mentioned above are:

Valuable?

Rare?

Costly to imitate?

Organized properly?
