About The Standard Register Company

The Standard Register Company provides business documents and related services for the healthcare, financial services, commercial, and industrial markets.

Segments

The company's segments include Healthcare, Financial Services, Emerging, and Industrial.

HEALTHCARE

Healthcare segment serves the document-related needs of the healthcare market. The company's primary focus is on acute care providers. The Healthcare segment primarily produces brochures, newsletters, direct mail and other collateral for hospitals, which use them to promote their services.

Documents

Administrative and Clinical Forms: Administrative and clinical forms are the core of the company's traditional document management offering. They include an array of forms and documents for managing patient admissions, tests, treatments and discharge, as well as consulting and design services to help hospitals standardize documents, streamline workflow, and prepare for migration to electronic medical records.

Secure Prescriptions: Secure Prescriptions are produced in secure pads, laser sheets and rolls of thermal paper to enable healthcare providers to produce prescriptions on their printers. The company utilizes its proprietary inks, substrates, and patented design features to create prescriptions that deter fraud.

Marketing Solutions: The company offers design, print and fulfillment capabilities. Its Web-based solutions offer companies decentralized content management with centralized brand control and the ability to create one-to-one personalized communications.

Patient Communications: Patient Communications consist of patient billing statements, explanation of benefits, healthcare plan enrollment kits, and related notifications. The company also prints patient educational materials about medical conditions, test and treatments, as well as staff training materials and references.

Wristbands & Labels

Wristbands and labels are essential to patient identification and safety. The company's technology gives hospitals the ability to generate labels, wristbands and documentation with barcodes, patient photos and data which help assure the right tests, treatments, and medications are matched with the right patient.

Workflow Solutions

Patient Information Solutions: Patient Information Solutions include software applications, such as SMARTworks Clinical Enterprise, and services to help hospitals migrate from their paper clinical documents to electronic medical records. The company's platform integrates with the major health information systems in use by hospitals.

Competition: The company's principal competitors for forms and printed training and marketing materials are R.R. Donnelley and Sons and WorkflowOne, which are national competitors. Principal competitors for wristbands and labels include St. John Companies, Inc., Precision Dynamics Corporation, and LaserBand.

FINANCIAL SERVICES

Financial Services segment serves the document needs of the financial services market, which consists primarily of retail banks, insurance carriers, credit agencies, security dealers, insurance agents/brokers, and holding companies. The company focuses on major retail banks and insurance carriers, targeting large and mid-market retail banks and the 300 insurance carriers.

Products and Services

Documents

Specialized Print: The company prints various custom documents. In certain complex applications, its engineers consult with its customers to identify innovative solutions in the design and protection of these documents.

Specialized print accounts for the majority of Financial Services revenue and includes: traditional business forms, such as checks, application forms, deposit slips, and teller receipts. Also included are official items for banks such as cashier's checks, money orders, and certified checks.

Customer Communications: The company produces transaction documents, customer notices, membership and enrollment documents, and variable communications. It offers flexibility in document output options, from print and mail, to e-mail, fax, or online presentment. In addition to traditional printed documents, the company offers a d
