About Takeda Pharmaceutical Co. Ltd.

Takeda Pharmaceutical Company Limited operates as a research-based pharmaceutical company in Japan. The company's drugs are marketed in approximately 90 countries worldwide.

The company has an international marketing network, including Japan and 13 overseas bases in the U.S., Europe, and Asia. From these bases, the company markets its original products, such as the anti-prostatic cancer agent leuprolide acetate (marketed as Lupron Depot, Enantone, Prostag, and Leuplin), the anti-peptic ulcer agent lansoprazole (marketed as Prevacid, Ogast, Takepron, and other names), the anti-hypertensive agent candesartan cilexetil (marketed as Blopress, Kenzen, and Amias), and the anti-diabetic agent pioglitazone hydrochloride (marketed as Actos).

Segments

The company operates its business in two categories, Pharmaceutical business and Other businesses.

The Pharmaceutical business represents the ethical drug business and healthcare business.

Other businesses include business activities involving the production and marketing of a range of products, including vitamin bulks, test reagents & clinical diagnostics, photographic chemicals, and inorganic chemicals.

Products

Candesartan Cilexetil

Candesartan cilexetil is an angiotensin receptor blocker (ARB) that is used in hypertension treatment. Its once-daily dosing provides patients with a mild anti-hypertensive action. In addition, candesartan cilexetil is also applied for the treatment of chronic heart failure.

Pioglitazone Hydrochloride

Once-daily dosing with pioglitazone hydrochloride improves insulin sensitivity and reduces blood glucose levels, without placing any additional burdens on the pancreas. The drug is marketed in approximately 80 countries worldwide. In the United States, Actoplus Met, a fixed-dose combination tablet of pioglitazone hydrochloride and metformin, as well as Duetact, a fixed-dose combination tablet of pioglitazone hydrochloride and glimepiride, are also marketed.

Strategic Partnerships

The company, in September 2007, entered into partnership with H. Lundbeck A/S for the development and commercialization of Lundbeck's portfolio of compounds, Lu AA21004, for the treatment of mood and anxiety disorders and entering Phase III studies in December 2007. This belongs to a new chemical class, with an active mechanism that differs from antidepressants.

In November 2009, Amylin Pharmaceuticals Inc. and Takeda Pharmaceutical Co. Ltd. announced that they have entered into a worldwide exclusive license, development and commercialization agreement to co-develop and commercialize pharmaceutical products for the treatment of obesity and related indications. The agreement includes products to be developed from Amylin's pipeline, including pramlintide/metreleptin and davalintide, which are compounds currently in phase 2 development for treatment of obesity.

In January 2009, Seattle Genetics Inc. and Takeda Oncology with its parent company Takeda Pharmaceutical Co. Ltd. entered into an agreement to globally develop and commercialize brentuximab vedotin (SGN-35).

ANALYSIS FEATURES

SWOT Analysis

SWOT, which stands for Strengths, Weaknesses, Opportunities and Threats, is an analytical framework that identifies the internal and external factors that are favorable and unfavorable for a company.

Enhanced SWOT Analysis

Enhanced SWOT is a 3x3 grid that arranges strengths, weaknesses, opportunities and threats into one scheme:

How to use the strengths to take advantage of the opportunities?

How to use the strengths to reduce likelihood and impact of the threats?

How to overcome the weaknesses that obstruct taking advantage of the opportunities?

How to overcome the weaknesses that can make the threats a reality?

Upon answering these questions a company can develop a project plan to improve its business performance.

PESTEL Analysis

PESTEL (also termed as PESTLE) is an ideal tool to strategically analyze what influence different outside factors – political, economic, sociocultural, technological, environmental and legal – exert on a business to later chart its long term targets.

Being part of the external analysis when carrying out a strategic assessment or performing a market study, PESTEL gives an overview of diverse macro-environmental factors that any company should thoughtfully consider. By perceiving these outside environments, businesses can maximally benefit from the opportunities while minimizing the threats to the organization.

Key Factors Examined by PESTEL Analysis:

Political – What opportunities and pressures are brought by political bodies and what is the degree of public regulations' impact on the business?

Economic – What economic policies, trends and structures are expected to affect the organization, what is this influence's degree?

Sociological – What cultural and societal aspects will work upon the demand for the business's products and operations?

Technological – What impact do the technological aspects, innovations, incentives and barriers have on the organization?

Environmental – What environmental and ecological facets, both locally and farther afield, are likely to predetermine the business?

Legal – What laws and legislation will exert influence on the style the business is carried out?

IFE, EFE, IE Matrices

The Internal Factor Evaluation matrix (IFE matrix) is a strategic management tool helping audit or evaluate major weaknesses and strengths in a business's functional areas. In addition, IFE matrix serves as a basis for identifying and assessing relationships amongst those areas. The IFE matrix is utilised in strategy formulation.

The External Factor Evaluation matrix (EFE matrix) is a tool of strategic management that is typically utilised to assess current market conditions. It is an ideal instrument for visualising and prioritising the threats and opportunities a firm is facing.

The essential difference between the above mentioned matrices lies in the type of factors incorporated in the model; whilst the latter is engaged in internal factors, the former deals exceptionally with external factors – those exposed to social, political, economic, legal, etc. external forces.

Being a continuation of the EFE matrix and IFE matrix models, the Internal External matrix (IE matrix) rests upon an investigation of external and internal business factors integrated into one suggestive model.

Porter Five Forces Analysis

The Porter's five forces analysis studies the industry of operation and helps the company find new sources of competitive advantage. The analysis surveys an industry through five major questions:

What composes a threat of substitute products and services?

Is there a threat of new competitors entering the market?

What is the intensity of competitive rivalry?

How big is the bargaining power of buyers?

How significant is the bargaining power of suppliers?

VRIO Analysis

VRIO stands for Value, Rarity, Imitability, Organization. This analysis helps to evaluate all company's resources and capabilities and bring them together into one aggregate table that includes:

Tangible resources

Financial

Physical

Technological

Organizational

Intangible resources

Human

Innovation and Creativity

Reputation

Organizational capabilities

The result of the analysis gives a clear picture of company's competitive and economic implications, answering the questions if the resources mentioned above are:

Valuable?

Rare?

Costly to imitate?

Organized properly?
