Abstracts

REPORT SCOPE:

This report is confined to covering IAQ issues at residential homes, commercial buildings and light industrial properties, schools and hospitals in China. It does not discuss IAQ issues relevant to heavy industry and manufacturing environments, nor does it cover IAQ issues, practices, equipment and regulations concerning confined spaces or aircraft. It does, however, discuss the equipment and services that are most relevant to private homes, office buildings, retail establishments, schools and healthcare facilities in great detail. The equipment covered includes air cleaners, HVAC equipment, HVAC replacement filters and IAQ instrumentation. Environmental services, such as consulting and remediation and recovery, are also specifically noted.

The report first covers trends and information related to the overall Chinese IAQ market. It then discusses the equipment subcategory of the industry and breaks it down into sections regarding each type of equipment. It then covers the consulting and testing industry subcategory and the environmental services industry subcategory. Technologies, trends, market value and growth are discussed for each subcategory. From there, the report covers the end-use markets, including residential dwellings, commercial buildings, schools and hospitals. Each setting is discussed in detail, including specific contaminants, problems and solutions, as well as the types of equipment and services appropriate to each location. The next section discusses the Chinese IAQ market by both region and city. The final chapter highlights several important market strategies.

REPORT INCLUDES:

97 tables

An overview of Chinese market of indoor air quality (IAQ)

Coverage of important products, services, manufacturers, and service providers related to the industry

Information on production technologies and factors influencing demands for IAQ products

Discussion of recent advances in technologies and products within the industry

Insight into regulatory and environmental developments

Profiles of key players in the market, including 3M, Panasonic Corporation of China, Philips (China) Investment Co. Ltd., Samsung?China?Investment Co. Ltd., Sharp (China) Investment Co. Ltd. and Xiaomi Technology Co. Ltd.

CHAPTER 2 SUMMARY AND HIGHLIGHTS

Highlights
Fast-Growing Markets
Largest Market Segments

CHAPTER 3 INDUSTRY OVERVIEW

Importance of the Indoor Air Quality Industry and the Chinese Market
History of the Indoor Air Quality Industry and Its Current Situation
Industry Description
IAQ Equipment
Indoor Air Quality Consulting Services
Environmental Services

CHAPTER 4 CHINESE INDOOR AIR QUALITY MARKET BY PRODUCT AND SERVICE

Indoor Air Quality Background
General Situation
Causes of Indoor Air Quality Problems
Effects of Indoor Air Quality Contaminants
Factors Driving Indoor Air Quality Industry Growth
Chinese Market of Indoor Air Quality Equipment
Air Cleaners

Ventilation Systems
Replacement Filters
Indoor Air Quality Instrumentation
Indoor Air Quality Consulting Market
Indoor Air Quality Environmental Services Market
Mold-Remediation Industry
Asbestos Abatement
Radon Removal
Indoor Air Quality Environmental Services Market
Indoor Air Quality Consulting Market

CHAPTER 5 INDOOR AIR QUALITY END-USE APPLICATIONS AND MARKET POTENTIAL

Residences
Pollutants Commonly Found in the Home
Residential Indoor Air Pollution and Health
Residential Market
Commercial Buildings
Health Problems and Ventilation
Controlling Indoor Air Pollution in Commercial Buildings
Commercial Ventilation Systems Problems and Solutions
Commercial Indoor Air Quality Market
Schools
Indoor Air Quality Issues Unique to Schools
Importance of Addressing Indoor Air Quality Issues in Schools
Indoor Air Pollutants of Concern in Schools
Filtration for Improved School Indoor Air Quality
School Market
Healthcare Facilities
Importance of Good Indoor Air Quality in Healthcare Facilities
Healthcare Market

CHAPTER 6 CHINESE INDOOR AIR QUALITY MARKET BY REGION

North China
North China Indoor Air Quality Product and Service Market
North China Indoor Air Quality Market by City
East China

East China Indoor Air Quality Market
East China Indoor Air Quality Market by City
Middle China
