Abstracts

REPORT INCLUDES:

An overview with a trend analysis of the global market for social robots, which are designed to engage with people and to elicit an emotional connection

Discussion of social robots in the use-cases or categories such as human-like, medical/therapeutic, personal/customer services and toys; ethics and risks associated with using this technology

Analyses of global market trends with data from 2019, estimates for 2020 and projections of compound annual growth rates (CAGRs) through 2025

Review of recent patent grants and accepted applications for patents with respect to design innovations and end uses

Contents

CHAPTER 1 SOCIAL ROBOTS: EMOTIONAL CONNECTION AND TASK ENGAGEMENTS

Background

Definitions

Medical Assist/Therapeutic Social Robots

Public Personal Services Social Robots

Private Personal Services Social Robots

Social Robotic Toys

Human-Like Social Robots

Artificial Intelligence Applied to Emotional Responsiveness

Human-Centric Artificial Intelligence
