Abstracts

The global Brisket Market is valued at approximately USD XX billion in 2021 and is anticipated to grow with a healthy growth rate of more than XX % over the forecast period 2022-2029. Brisket is a cut of beef obtained from the lower chest of a cow. It includes the lower breast and pectoral muscles of the cow. Brisket offers six times more omega-3 fatty acids that helps to prevent various diseases such as mental wellbeing, rheumatoid arthritis, and attention deficit disorders. The Brisket market is expanding because of factors such the rising urbanization and the growing adoption of a healthy lifestyle.

According to Our World in Data in 2019, more than 4 billion people are living in Urban areas globally. By 2050, it is estimated that more than two third of the global population will live in Urban areas i.e around 7 billion. Whereas rising awareness towards protein-rich diet and supportive government regulation for clean labeled products create lucrative opportunities for the market. However, growing veganism hampers the market growth throughout the forecast period of 2022-2029.

The key regions considered for the Global Brisket Market study include Asia Pacific, North America, Europe, Latin America, and the Rest of the World. North America dominated the market in terms of revenue, owing to the increasing awareness of health, growing public inclination towards healthy diet, and demand for high-value protein. Whereas Asia Pacific is expected to grow significantly during the forecast period, owing to factors such as increasing urbanization, adoption of new lifestyle trends, and food habits.
