Abstracts

Global Building Inspection Services Market is valued at approximately USD XX billion in 2021 and is anticipated to grow with a healthy growth rate of more than XX % over the forecast period 2022-2028. Building inspection services include sales of building inspection services by entities (organizations, sole traders and partnerships) to evaluate all aspects of the building components systems and structure and prepare a report on the physical condition of the property, generally for buyers or others involved in real estate transactions. Government projects for affordable housing and increasing urbanization are the major factors driving demand for building inspection services market. Such as, in 2015, government of India introduced Pradhan Mantri Awas Yojana (PMAY) to provide affordable housing to all citizens by 2022. Also, according to the World Bank, urban population (% of urban population) increased from 55.72% in 2019 to 56.15% in 2020. Furthermore, strategic initiatives by market players and rise in the standard of living are projected to fuel significant growth in the market during the forecast period 2022-28. In December 2020, Applus+, acquired SAFCO Group. Through this acquisition, Applus+ will be able to increase its service portfolio in Middle East. Also, in October 2020, Singapore analytics and acoustic technologies company H3 Zoom begin using drones for building inspection and facility management. However, high cost of these services and labor shortage may impede the growth in coming years.

The key regions considered for the Global Building Inspection Services Market study include Asia Pacific, North America, Europe, Latin America, and Rest of the World. North America is leading the world market in terms of revenue owing to presence of prominent players in the region. Whereas, Asia Pacific is projected to grow with a significant growth rate in near future due to growing urbanization and rising disposable income.

Major market players included in this report are:

AmeriSpec Inspection Services
