Abstracts

Global Canned Mushroom Market is valued approximately at USD 8.13 Billion in 2020 and is anticipated to grow with a healthy growth rate of more than 5.51% over the forecast period 2021-2027. Canned Mushrooms are sliced small fresh mushrooms packed in a can. The global Canned Mushroom market is being driven by the increase in vegan population around the world, as mushrooms are a rich source of nutrients and works as an alternative for non-vegetarian food. For instance, according to the sentientmedia.org, in U.S., there has been 300% increase in vegan population between 2004 and 2019. Another important driving factor for the growth of market is the rising health conscious consumers, who have become busier in the urbanized lifestyle thus prefers nutrient rich diet. Moreover, rising per capita income, technological advancement in packaging of the prodduct, expanding online retailing and continuous introduction of new & unique products by the companies will provide new opportunities for the global Canned Mushroom industry. However, use of synthetic materials in the packaging may impede market growth over the forecast period of 2021-2027.

The key regions such as Asia Pacific, North America, Europe, Latin America, and Rest of the World are considered for the regional analysis of the global Canned Mushroom Market. Asia Pacific is the leading region across the world in terms of market share due to easy availability of mushrooms in the region and presence of large number of producers. Whereas North America is anticipated to exhibit the highest CAGR over the forecast period 2021-2027 due to the shifting consumer inclination for organic food and rising health conscious consumers in the region.
