Abstracts

Global Colored Gemstones Market is valued approximately XXX billion in 2020 and is anticipated to grow with a healthy growth rate of more than XXX over the forecast period 2021-2027. Colored gemstones are referred to mineral which are prized for their beauty and rarity. Increasing popularity of gemstones serves as the key driver for the colored gemstones market. Growing millennials attention towards colored gemstones all over the world serves as another driver for the market. Increasing sales of colored gemstones for investment purposes also fuels the market. According to report by British new service The Telegraph, pink diamonds were recognized as the number one opportunity for investment in the year 2020. In the past 10 years, prices have seen a steady rise, and as per the reports, it will only continue to increase. Growing trend for expensive gemstones among film stars serves as another major driver for the market. However, absence of professional labor and social practice, and environmental laws impedes the growth of the market over the forecast period of 2021-2027. Also, advancements in distribution networks and channels are likely to increase the market growth during the forecast period.

The regional analysis of global Colored Gemstones Market is considered for the key regions such as Asia Pacific, North America, Europe, Latin America and Rest of the World. North America is the leading region across the world in terms of market share owing to advancement of trade associations and other non-profit institutes within the region Whereas, Asia-Pacific is also anticipated to exhibit highest growth rate over the forecast period 2021-2027. Factors such as increasing trend for colored gemstones in the region would create lucrative growth prospects for the Colored Gemstones Market across Asia-Pacific region.
