Abstracts

Global Dermocosmetics Skin Care Products Market is valued at approximately USD 52.12 billion in 2021 and is anticipated to grow with a healthy growth rate of more than 7.5% over the forecast period 2022-2029. Dermocosmetics skin care product is a skincare solution that is formed by the usage of sophisticated active ingredients to offer benefits to health and beauty to various skin conditions. Dermocosmetics skin care product includes anti-aging, skin brightening, hair & scalp care, baby care, sun care, lip care, and others products. The growing demand for personalized beauty products, rising development of new and improved existing skincare solutions, coupled with substantial investments by various major pharmaceutical and cosmetological companies are driving the global market growth.

According to Statista, in 2021, the global skincare market was estimated to be valued at USD 155.8 billion, which is projected to reach USD 189.3 billion by 2025. Therefore, the thriving demand for skin care products is excelling the growth of the market around the world. In addition, a robust product portfolio by the key market players and rising consumer inclination toward natural beauty products are creating lucrative opportunities for market growth over the forecasting years. However, the lack of awareness among the population for skin care and some dermocosmetics skin care products contains dangerous and cancer-causing compounds that are hindering market growth throughout the forecast period of 2022-2029.

The key regions considered for the Global Dermocosmetics Skin Care Products Market study include Asia Pacific, North America, Europe, Latin America, and the Rest of the World. Europe is dominating the market space in terms of revenue, owing to the rising sales of cosmetic products through various brands and increasing consumer spending on personal care products. Whereas, the Asia Pacific is expected to grow significantly during the forecast period. Factors such as rising inclination toward premium cosmetic brands among celebrities, growing population, as well as the increasing disposable income are burgeoning the market growth in the forecasting years.
