Abstracts

Global Fitness and Yoga Wear Market is valued approximately USD XX million in 2019 and is anticipated to grow with a healthy growth rate of more than XX% over the forecast period 2019-2026. For multiple athletic activities such as jogging, hiking, surfing, dance, water aerobics, yoga, and cycling, sportswear is a clothing worn. In certain tasks, the activity-specific apparel is used for convenience, functional and health purposes. Fitness and yoga Apparel fabrics are the advanced lightweight materials that support the wearer during exercise. The market growth is primarily driven by increasing disposable income and rise in number of people specially women in fitness activities. Most of these people prefer comfortable, trendy ad quality wear while performing their activities and the rising disposable incomes supports them to buy fitness and yoga wear. Moreover, rising health consciousness among the working professionals due to the changing lifestyle and higher work stress has led people to adopt yoga activities which therefore increases the adoption of fitness and yoga wear. Furthermore, the major companies in the market are introducing products with enhanced comfort and vibrant colors to attract women who are the main consumers of the product. Some technological advancements in the fitness and yoga wear include use of nanotechnology fabrics. For instance, DuPont Advanced Materials launched two garments in August 2017 based on DuPont Intexar, a smart athletic apparel platform at Salt Lake City, Utah, U.S. Both garments have capabilities to capture real-time body data such as real-time ECG depending on the wearer 's activities. In recent years, there has been a large growth in the number of women participating in physical events, such as yoga and zumba. For instance, according to the Bureau of Labor Statistics, around 19 percent of the U.S. population was engaged in sports and exercise each day in 2017. Male participation was higher (20.2 percent) than the participation rate of women (17.8 percent). This included participation in sports, exercise, and other active leisure activities.

The regional analysis of Global Fitness and Yoga Wear Market is considered for the key regions such as Asia Pacific, North America, Europe, Latin America and Rest of the World. Owing to the emergence of Asia Pacific as a major manufacturing hub and the growth of e-commerce in the region, Asia Pacific is projected to hold a significant share of the global market during the forecast period (2020-2027).
