Abstracts

Global Fixed Income Asset Management Market is valued at approximately USD XX billion in 2021 and is anticipated to grow with a healthy growth rate of more than XX% over the forecast period 2022-2029. Fixed Income Asset refers to a mutual fund that invests in fixed income securities such as government debts, treasury bills, and money markets among others and pays the investors a fixed amount of return over a pre-defined period. These types of funds mainly receive investment from investors that are looking for low-risk investment solutions. The increasing growth in investment trends worldwide and low market risk associated with fixed income funds as well as strategic initiatives from leading market players are key factors accelerating the market growth.

According to Statista – in 2019, the total global net assets of mutual funds registered in the United States were estimated at USD 21.28 trillion, and the total net assets further increased to USD 27 trillion in 2021. Also, growing awareness towards investing in millennials coupled with the rising emergence of digital investment tools & platforms would create a lucrative growth prospectus for the market over the forecast period. However, the low return on investment associated with fixed income funds market growth throughout the forecast period of 2022-2029.

The key regions considered for the Global Fixed Income Asset Management Market study includes Asia Pacific, North America, Europe, Latin America, and Rest of the World. North America is the leading region in terms of market share owing to the presence of leading mutual fund distributors as well as the rising number of investors in the region. Whereas the Asia Pacific is expected to grow with the highest CAGR during the forecast period, owing to factors such as increasing penetration of leading fund distributors as well as rising digitization in the financial services sector in the region.
