Abstracts

Global Food Delivery Logistic Market is valued at approximately USD 109.38 billion in 2021 and is anticipated to grow with a healthy growth rate of more than 8.30% over the forecast period 2022-2029. Food delivery logistics involve planning, implementing, controlling movement and delivering food products at a desired location. Food delivery logistics also support various activities such as material handling, inventory management and order fulfilment. Food logistics provides the right product and quantity at a low cost and delivers the product on time. The key factors accelerating the market growth are advancement in technology, improving distribution networks and infrastructure, and growing e-commerce industries, which are rising expansion of food logistics services.

The rapid growth in the food and beverage industry is one of the primary reasons for the growth of the food logistics industry. According to Statista—in 2021, The global food industry was estimated at USD 2.52 billion, and the worldwide food industry is projected to grow to USD 4.43 billion in 2028. Also, the increased international trade of perishable foods, the rise of e-commerce sectors such as online retail shopping and technological advancements such as artificial intelligence are creating a lucrative growth prospectus for the market over the forecast period. However, Increasing transportation costs and the seasonality of product demand stifle market growth throughout the forecast period of 2022-2029.

The key regions considered for the Food Delivery Logistic Market study includes Asia Pacific, North America, Europe, Latin America, and Rest of the World. North America dominated the Food Delivery Logistic Market in terms of revenue, owing to the high demand for packaged foods, and rising e-commerce sales are expected to sustain its dominance throughout its forecast period. Asia Pacific is expected to grow with the highest CAGR during the forecast period, owing to factors such as increasing urbanization in China and India, and changing consumer preferences toward food delivery services in the region.
