Abstracts

Global Food & Grocery Retail Market is valued approximately at USD 12.29 trillion in 2020 and is anticipated to grow with a healthy growth rate of more than 5% over the forecast period 2021-2027. Food & Grocery Retail market players have been expanding their product offerings along with growing purchases from customers. The global Food & Grocery Retail market is being driven by increasing retail sales. For instance, according to the United Nations Conference on Trade and Development, the retail sales in China increased from USD 5.75 trillion in 2018 to USD 5.68 trillion in 2020 and the same increased in United States from USD 5.26 trillion in 2018 to USD 5.63 in 2020. The other driving factor is the increase in middle income consumers who have ability to pay along with the rising demand for retails. According to the World Bank, the middle-income population worldwide has increased from 5.66 billion in 2017 to 5.75 billion in 2019. Furthermore, increase in food demand, growing e-commerce sales and increasing food processing industry will provide new opportunities for the global Food & Grocery Retail industry. However, disruptions in supply chain may impede market growth over the forecast period of 2021-2027.

The regional analysis is based on the key regions such as Asia Pacific, North America, Europe, Latin America, and Rest of the World for the global Food & Grocery Retail Market. Asia-Pacific is the leading region across the world in terms of market share and is anticipated to exhibit the highest CAGR over the forecast period 2021-2027 owing to growth of e-commerce retail sales, high demand for processed & packaged food, favorable government policies to promote transportation and manufacturing and increasing investments by the private companies in the region.
